Coming Events' VILLAGE MANAGER'S ANNUAL REPORT TELLS OF 1923 ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND SETS FORTH THE NEEDS OF 1924

> Statistics Show Birmingham To Be In Best Financial Condition In Its History; Report Covers Work Of Various Departments in Village Offices; Recommends That Tax Rate Be Kept At $15.00 To Create Opprating Surplus

> Covering in detail various municipal activities of Birmingham for the year 1923, including recommendations for 1924, Village Manager Harry S. Starr Monday night of this week turned over to the Commission his annual report. It concludes the sixth year in the life of this village under the Commissioner-Manager form of government.
> i The report, which is splendidly written, declares that here before in its history has Birmingham/been in so prosperous a condition. Following is Manager Starr's letter to the Commission, which preceded the actual statistical report:—
