

How You Save

MOST homes use the electric sweeper. A prime reason is its economy. Here is an estimate of the money it saves in the course of a year:

$12 hours of sweeping, dusting, beating rugs and other incidental work, at, say 30 cents an hour $36.00

Avoids the frequent replacement of brooms, dust pans, dust cloths, brushes, etc., say $10.00

Prevents wear on rugs and carpets due to embedded grit which cannot be removed by broom, say $5.00

Total saving in 12 months—$106.00

To say nothing of the saving of priceless health and strength.

NEXT WEEK'S ATTRACTIONS AT THE BALDWIN THEATRE.

Harold Lloyd in his latest and greatest comedy, "Why Worry," will be the principal film attraction at the popular Baldwin Theatre next week Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. A great deal of interest has been aroused since the first announcement was made that this extraordinary film feature would be shown here. The management of the Baldwin, desiring to give every one the opportunity to see this feature, have arranged for two complete shows each night during the run of the picture. The first evening performance will start promptly at 6:45 and the second at 9:00 P. M. High-class Vandeville will also be given with "Why Worry" and it is safe to say that there has never been a bigger or more expensive performance offered in this city. Patrons are urged to come early and avoid the big crowds later in the evening.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 14-16th, House Peters and an all-star Metro cast will be seen in "Held to Answer," together with an exceptional well-balanced Vandeville bill of 5 acts.

"Flames of Passion," a story of the Oregon lumberlands, will be the film attraction on Sunday, Feb. 17, with all all-star bill of vaudeville. William S. Hart in "Wild Bill Hickok" will be shown on the last two nights and tomorrow a special children's matinee will be given tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 so that all youngsters can come and see their favorite Western play.

AT THE ROYAL THEATRE.

Sunrise, on a win-win, wint, heath. A man awakes and collects his scattered wits. He was in his way when the lightning struck. But where? The old man draws his exhausted body up the hill to the prison. A surprise awaits him and the nature of the enterprise is one of the most dramatic moments ever flung upon the screen.

All will be graphically shown when "The Mailman," one of the most vivid and dramatic pictures of the day, will be shown at the Royal Theatre, Royal Oak, next Monday and Tuesday.

It is the best of the series glorifying the men of public service that Ralph Lewis, the veteran screen director, have ever put forward. Wednesday, the ever-popular, masterful, or Emory Johnson, master of the popular novel, "Blinky." Also a Brownie Comedy.

Mystery stories have been written about men lost in the catacombs of Rome, the covers of Paris, the jungles of Africa, and the labyrinthine of subterranean caves—in fact, authors have long since despaired of finding any new way to effectively portray their heroes alive in any place on earth.

In "Lights Out," a moving picture play which comes to this theatre Thursday and Friday next week, a novel way of portraying a character was discovered by Paul Dickey and Mann Page, the authors, when they put their villain, hero, and others into a moving picture study.

"THE FOOL," BIG DRAMATIC SUCCESS, AT THE GARRICK.

A splendid opportunity is offered to the theatre patrons of this city to see the outstanding dramatic success of the American stage. "The Fool" which opens a limited engagement at the Garrick theatre, Detroit, beginning Sunday, February 10th. There will be popular price matinees on Wednesday and the usual matinee on Saturday.

By special arrangements with the Selwyns, the producers and Channing Pollock, the author, the Garrick theatre obtains this great play at the termination of its six month engagement at the Selwyn theatre, Chicago, where it has been playing to capacity audiences and where seats were eagerly sought after weeks in advance.

Not only have the critics and the public acclaimed "The Fool" as a really great play in New York, Philadelphia and Boston, but it has been the topic of lectures and sermons by Protestant Ministers, Catholic Priests, Jewish Rabbis, and Christian Scientists. Many clergymen have announced from their pulpits that they would rather have their congregations see "The Fool" than to listen to a sermon.

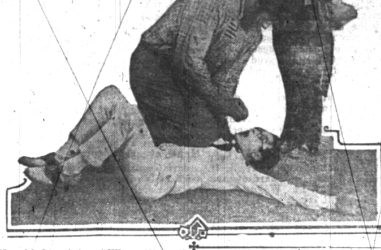

While "The Fool" conveys a great lesson it also provides splendid entertainment of the sort that appeals to both young and old. Its four acts bristle with dramatic situations while throughout the story there is interwoven a romance of rare charm and beauty.

Owing to the fact that in virtually every city in which "The Fool" has appeared this season the house has been sold out at every performance those who are unable to see this great play are urged to order their seats in advance in order to avoid disappointment. Mail orders are now being filled in the order of their receipt while the box office sale of seats begins on Thursday, February seventh.

"BARNEY GOOGLE AND SPARK PLUG" AT STRAND, PONTIAC

The Cartoon Amusement Co., Inc., who are presenting "Barney Google and Spark Plug," the ingenious creation of Billy Debeck, the famed cartoonist, has been transformed into a musical farce and "Barney Google and Spark Plug" will be revealed in all their comical idiosyncrasies at the Strand Theatre, Pontiac, on Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 12 and 13. In the stage version of "Barney Google and Spark Plug," William K. Wells, the author, is said to have rejected the spirit of Mr. Billy Debeck's creation admirably, permitting a cast of excellent features to vitalize these humorously comic and continuously interesting personalities in a telling manner.

There is romance and enchantment in abundance surrounding "Barney Google and Spark Plug," and the acting, and hitting as are the songs the lasting impression of "Barney Google and Spark Plug" are the girls. It's a girl show—much of a girl show it seems as if every kind of a girl is there. Seats go on sale on Monday, Feb. 11.

Your Question

AND ITS ANSWER

Question—"Please tell me, do you call on bed-side cases, such as fevers and other acute cases, and if so, with what success?"

ANSWER—Many people continue to have the opinion that Chiropactors will help chronic ailments, but it is not effective in acute conditions. This is a mistake. Nothing is further from the truth. As a matter of fact, proven in our daily practice, acute conditions, such as acute pains and aches, colds, fevers, inflammations, acute indigestion and many other ailments we might name, respond much more quickly than the chronic forms of the same ailments. This is only logical when you stop to consider that the same cause exists in one as in the other, and the acute conditions, the bed-side cases, have existed but a short time and is therefore easier to adjust and correct. Give the competent Chiropactors all of the acute cases and there will be no chronic to adjust.

Consultation and analysis is always free.
