Hens Well Housed Bring Winter Income

Poultry are no longer considered a by-product of the farm. Warm, sanitary houses help to keep the hens in such a healthy condition that they continue to lay nearly all winter, and that is the time when they are most profitable.

Prepare now for winter eggs by building a good poultry house. The health and productiveness of the hens depend on proper housing.

Pick Your Hen House

Birmingham Girls Outplay Ferndale

Wednesday evening, Jan. 30, the girls team took the court and began to add to their already high average of points. This time the Ferndale girls were the victims, and although they put up a good fight, they were no match for the basketballing Pote and Rainey—the guard work of Reid and Haack, or the central activity of Cook and Miller. Ferndale quite often had the ball but seemed to lose it whenever they tried pass-work. Several times the ball flew toward the Birmingham circle but it was repeatedly snatched out of danger by guards, and rushed to the other basket to ring up two more points.

The Ferndale game was one of the snappiest girls' games played on our court this year, and we hope that we may repeat the performance next year. The Ferndale girls showed up well and while we cannot point out any particular star, the forwards are to be commended. Both centers and guards showed up well for their team.

When a game was in for some time, was substituted during the second half and showed her usual play. The girls of the team stuck like glue to their opponents when substituted for Rainey and Haack. The game was clean and showed the presence of good spirit between the teams. The line-up:

Birmingham	R. F.	Ferndale
Rainey	J. C.	Iens
Pote	L. F.	Wheeler
Cook	R. G.	Matheson
Miller	R. G.	Hampton
Reid	L. G.	Crippen
Haack

Substitutions: Second half, Groves for Rainey, Laughton for Miller, Taylor for Haack. Referee, Peel, Ypsilanti. Score, first half, 21-18; final score, 40-18.

Port Huron Takes Revenge, 28-19
When two basketball teams start to play it is reasonably certain that one of them will lose. Also it is customary for the one scoring the highest number of points to win. Friday's game verified both of these theories beyond dispute. During the first few minutes the Saints who had the tip off continually scored. Had they stopped there, things would have been different, but they did not, and the scoring continued with unabated enthusiasm. The gap between the two scores widened with alarming rapidity. Finding Vilet ineffective, Mr. Van Winkle released him and placed his responsibility on the capable shoulders of Lefty Schorr of diamond fame. The storm continued furiously throughout the first half, though it was seen just previous to the intermission that the Angelic ones were showing up. Birmingham began to blow the ball around and there will be a response by some boy in the State. Conference will close at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, enabling the boys to reach home before Sunday.

The second lap of the journey started with first team in the lead, but it was more equally divided. The Saints scored twice more in rapid succession. The boys of the team started shooting more frequently but the hard luck of the visiting gunners was simply atrocious. The host dropped a couple more. Then someone dropped a match in the powder keg and the fireworks started. Shave coaxed one through the gate. Bowal snapped the laced with a long pretty shot. Then after the Saints took another, the anxious eye of Bob Schorr saw light and the angular portside proceeded to agitate the position with an epidemic of baskets. This bombardment in which he dropped three with incredible celerity and aptitude caused the team to take time out and discuss the distressing state of affairs. Their conference was late, however, as the final whistle blew only a minute later.

Considering the game, as a whole, we lost, but taking it by halves it was not so bad. We lost the first stanza 16-7 and tied the following paragraph 12-12. This is the second time that a slow start has lost a game for the Pety Hail aggregation, the other being at Ipi Central earlier in the season. Failure to get the tip off was the principle cause of our inability to count more in the first half. We say this not meaning to slight the fine game put up by Shave. Ernie showed the kind of stuff we like to boast about. No one on the team or any other team ever fought harder for his alma mater, but the human giraffe which confronted him presented a physical advantage which Ernie could not overcome through no fault of either of them. It takes nerve to keep on fighting when you know you're tired and you can't slip em through as you should. Sympson and Latham had nerve. We might say it would take the courage of a Spartan to face the charge of a delegation of Edison poles but for the fact that Stan Hunt is not a Spartan and the way he faced the aforementioned charge was simply sensational.

So, take it all in all, it was a good game. We lost fair and square to a bunch of good clean sports who were not too big. Port Huron is a Class A school and so the result of this game in no way affects the S. C. A. percentage or unofficial prestige of the B. H. S., so don't feel bad, folks, we'll win you another game. The line-up:

B. H. S.	R. F.	Port Huron
Vilet	L. F.	Langford
Latham	C.	Monzo
Shave	R. G.	Ross
Sympson	L. G.	Roach
Hunt		Blackney
Scott		Port Huron
Port Huron		Referee, Dean, Southeastern, Detroit.

Scuse and Nonsense
Port Huron is a college town, even the river was full of hard water.

Though the original intention centered on the court game, various other games were featured.

One might say Birmingham lost by inches.

A lot of folks in Port Huron are right.

still wondering if "Babe" Grooms is really Mr. Van Winkle's boy. Stan Hunt picked up among other things the title of Shorty. Stan says to tell the world he is five feet seven. The trouble seems prevalent in Port Huron. The team ran across a lot of "flats."

Schorr takes geometry, but this one stumped him. How far is it from here to somewhere else? The high school road aerial at Port Huron is only fastened at one end, the various members of the basketball team take turns at the other.

It's a noisy town bell, trussers and loud tie mingle their discords, flopping of flappers and the strained strains of Valentine's side-burn and lubricated locks crowned the presence of the local reporters.

Ref Deacon has sharp eyes, but on several occasions they were crossed. Anyone not believing the Port Huron conductors are former pack-trail horse employees should ride with 'em.

Schorr found conclusive proof that ivory is highly elastic when a wild pig recoiled at Sells' ban.

We didn't win but we did something harder and more unusual—lost gracefully.

The one thing we most appreciate is coming home to B. H. S. In view of the fact that a slow start beats us so often it is suggested by this department that the regulars agree to play in the preliminary bout so as to start off on the right foot.

The support given the Birmingham boys by the Port Huron crowd was as good as they would have received at home.

Port Huron has the kind of spirit we lack. When they come here to play we owe them a square deal and a lot of consideration.

Good-bye, Port Huron! You were good winners!

HI-Y PRESIDENTS HOLD CONFERENCE

OFFICERS FROM STATE WILL MEET IN PONTIAC TODAY AND TOMORROW

HI-Y PRESIDENTS
The Pontiac HI-Y Club is entertaining Friday night and Saturday, Feb. 2 and 3, the presidents of all the HI-Y Clubs over the State of Michigan. Presidents of clubs in not, and the scoring continued with unabated enthusiasm. The gap between the two scores widened with alarming rapidity. Finding Vilet ineffective, Mr. Van Winkle released him and placed his responsibility on the capable shoulders of Lefty Schorr of diamond fame. The storm continued furiously throughout the first half, though it was seen just previous to the intermission that the Angelic ones were showing up. Birmingham began to blow the ball around and there will be a response by some boy in the State. Conference will close at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, enabling the boys to reach home before Sunday.

Rollin Smith, president of the Birmingham HI-Y Club will entertain JACKIE COOGAN IN "CIRCUS DAYS" AT AUDITORIUM MONDAY

Jackie Coogan, the tiny movie artist, will appear Monday evening at the Baldwin auditorium in one of his latest pictures, "Circus Days." The picture is, perhaps, his very best work, as it depicts him in the role of a small boy full of youth and pep. A committee from the senior section room of the Baldwin high school is responsible for the appearance of the picture here. The proceeds will go to swell the fund being raised by this committee to pay for the new actrola in the high school. Miss Chloe Harrie is acting chairman for the committee, and it is her aim to clear enough funds at this entertainment to make the final payment on the machine.

Mrs. Lewis Converse

Died in Galesburg, Mich., at the Methodist Home, Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 29, at 3:15, Mrs. Lewis Converse. She was 70 years of age. Deceased had been a great sufferer for the past eight months and everything that loving hands and kind hands could do, was done to the very last by her only daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Randolph, assisted by every member of the Home, all warm personal friends. Two weeks before the death of the patient, Mrs. Randolph was summoned to her bedside, where she remained a watchful attendant and a faithful daughter to the end.

For over 30 years deceased was a most worthy and a highly respected resident of our village, and a member of the M. E. church. Always ready to help the needy, and being possessed of a cheerful and happy disposition, she made faithful friends wherever she went.

All the friends at the Home were loving and kind to the sufferer and did everything in their power to relieve her sufferings, which were borne most patiently to the end, and the only prayer uttered by the sick one was "That she might be patient and uncomplaining to the end," and so she was.

The floral offerings were numerous and very beautiful. The Home folks at Chelsea, the Masonic Lodge at Owosso and the Ladies' Relief Corps of Owosso sending large and appropriate floral condolences, besides many other personal remembrances.

Franklin News

Mrs. Rhea Ward of Pontiac, was a Sunday guest of Mrs. Andrew Bowen.

The Ladies' Foreign Missionary Society met with Mrs. William L. Spicer Friday afternoon.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beebe was buried in the Franklin cemetery last Sunday.

Mrs. Janette Dunbar, who resides at her home here during the summer months, is seriously ill at the Pontiac State hospital.

"Grumpy," a melodramatic comedy of character, will be the picture at the church Saturday evening. This is one of the strongest and most delightful Paramount productions. Theodore Roberts, who played Uncle Josh in "The Hottentot," again features as "Grumpy," while May McAvoy and Conrad Nagel also have feature roles.

The Ladies' Aid at the bank Wednesday evening was well attended and as expected, on account of the condition of the roads. However, those present enjoyed not only the splendid menu but the address which followed. Rev. Evans, formerly of Bedford and Southfield, M. E. churches, but now of South Lyons, was the speaker. His topic, "When the Whistle Blows," was handled in a very able manner, and he says that as the factory on fire whistle or school bell is a call to activity, so should the church bell be, as the Church is the biggest business in the world. He said that the Sunday morning when the church bell rings he will be disappointed if every man and boy in the community does not start on the run for church.
