Theatres

Film Attractions At The Popular Baldwin Theatre.

Marshall Neilan's production "The Rendezvous" and the Pathe News and Aesop's Fables will be seen for the last time at the Baldwin Theatre tonight and tomorrow.

The management of the theatre will present for next week Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 21-22-23rd, "The Great White Way" with a special cast of over 40 Broadway's biggest and best known stars and celebrities. Several other features have been released in the past with a notable cast but none have reached the magnitude of "The Great White Way." The story is one that will hold interest from start to finish and serves to introduce in a new and novel manner the 40 or more stage and screen stars who play parts especially selected for them. "The Great White Way" has been secured for showing in Royal Oak at very big expense and no doubt it will draw full houses here as it did during its two weeks run down town.

Enid Bennett, Harrison Ford, Mary Alden and Alec Francis will be the stars offered Royal Oak film fans on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 24-25-26th, when "The Fool's Awakening" will be the main film feature. This attraction from the Metro Studios which has turned out some of the outstanding hits of the present season. The Pathe News, Aesop's Fables and a 2-reel comedy will complete the program.

"The Danger Trail," Story Of The North, At Royal Theatre. No author has held the American public for such a long and uninterrupted period as Oliver C. Wood, who is the author of "The Danger Trail."

The spirit that prevails in the northwest stories is of such virile manner that it has a universal appeal. "The Danger Trail," a photoplay which is held in the place of honor on the screen of the Royal Theatre on next Wednesday and Thursday is unquestionably one of the most absorbing stories of its kind ever written. The action takes place in the Northwest amidst hardy men and frigid surroundings, but the blood in the men's veins flows vigorously and the atmosphere makes a stalwart manhood and honest dealing. But when an injustice is committed, the vengeance wrought upon the victims knows no bounds and the law holds no terror for their wrath. The scenes in this photoplay are a succession of adventure, thrills, love interest and continual suspense until the end is reached, when in the final denouement, the misunderstanding is cleared.

"The Awful Mrs. Eaton" At The Garrick Theatre. "The Awful Mrs. Eaton," a play both historical and romantic and carrying rare depth of plot, dealing with the turbulent days during the early period of Andrew Jackson's presidency, which was produced at the Garrick last Monday night by the Bonstelle Company, has caught the public fancy with a firm grip. Consequently, Miss Bonstelle has decided to continue this play for a second week in order that her many followers and those interested in the play might have an opportunity of witnessing the famous characters of the period of the late 1820's and early 1830's in flesh and blood. "The Awful Mrs. Eaton" marks a new milestone in Miss Bonstelle's occupancy of the Garrick and in her history as a producer. Unquestionably it is the biggest production yet attempted by a stock company, forty-two speaking parts and seven scenes being required to properly interpret the many interesting characters given in flesh and blood by the Messrs. Parrot and Benet.

Eco City News.

Lawn Party. Among the Eco City guests at the lawn party given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Campbell, on the lawn surrounding their home on Smith avenue, were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burke and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mansfield. The other guests included fourteen Detroit friends who were served a picnic supper on the lawn followed by base ball games.

Complete Verway Home. The new home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Verway on Smith avenue will be completed within the next few days. The Verways, who have been spending the past months with Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Ogden of Bird avenue, will move into their new home. The Verway home was totally destroyed, several months ago, by the fire. The new home has been built on the adjoining lot with a basement and all modern improvements.

Attend Home-Coming. With Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chamberlain and two children who had been their house-guests over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Bisco of Emmons avenue attended a home-coming at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Kiehler on Pallister avenue in Detroit Sunday evening. Mrs. Bisco is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kiehler and the homecoming was given in honor of Mrs. Bisco's friend, Fred Kiehler, Jr., who returned this week after three years in the western states.

Sidewalks Finished. The sidewalks have been completed by the Leinbach-Humphrey Co. on the subdivision lying to the east of the D. U. R. tracks this week. The machinery and laborers will be moved next week to the new street of the subdivision on Pierce street and the walks laid there immediately.

West Point Graduate. Frank Glover Frew with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frew, returned recently from the West Point Academy in New York where he was a member of this year's graduating class. In addition to several honors given Mr. Frew, he was a member of the West Point Polo team and a decidedly popular student. He will be with his parents until September when he will return to New York to be given his four years' appointment in the army.

Informal Supper Dance. At their home on Third avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Byrne were hosts at a pretty informal dance and supper Thursday evening. The last week. Their home was cleared of furniture and fourteen couples danced to music furnished by the band and bandleader. The dining room, where the guests enjoyed a late supper, was superbly artistically decorated with baskets of garden flowers.

Among the many motor parties from Eco that spent the week-end visiting relatives and friends at distant points, were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Campbell and two daughters who made the trip to Marine City by motor Saturday and spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ingram, parents of Mrs. Campbell. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vandewater of Bird avenue, entertained at their cottage on Walpole Island, where they are spending several weeks, over the last week-end for Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Baker of Smith avenue and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Miller of Smith avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pyfe of Davis avenue had as their guests over Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson of Starr Acres. A sister, Mrs. Laura Wingate of Grand Rapids, is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Owen Wingate at their home on Smith avenue. Mrs. Laura Wingate returned with the Wingate family by motor last week after they had spent July Fourth at her home.

Over the past week-end Mr. and Mrs. Alton Ruggles of Davis avenue had as their house-guests Mr. and Mrs. George McConnell of Wyandotte. At her home on Smith avenue, Mrs. George Bowman has been entertaining Mrs. Albert C. Wood of Pontiac, who returned to her home Sunday evening.

At a six o'clock dinner, Mrs. Roy Crouse entertained at her home on Smith avenue Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crouse, Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGregor of Royal Oak, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Beard of Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith of Smith avenue, after spending two weeks in Marine City with a sister-in-law, Mrs. Grace Smith, returned to her home Sunday evening.

On a motor trip to Port Huron for a week-end with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Bolman of Smith avenue will leave tomorrow accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. M. Douglas of Prairie Lawn Acres. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burke and son returned Saturday to their home on Bird avenue from Decatur, Ill., where they have been spending two weeks with Mrs. Burke's mother. They made the trip by motor.

After spending the day in town, Mrs. W. W. Cozart of Emmons avenue was the dinner guest, Monday evening, of Mr. and Mrs. James Burke at their home in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Elliott of Emmons avenue had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Uller and their daughter of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Howard McDonald, with their children, have leased their home on Davis avenue for the summer to Mrs. C. Hayward of two children, while they are spending, this summer at their cottage on Elizabeth Lake.

The little twin daughters born to Mr. and Mrs. Alf Ruggles, a Davis avenue on June 25 were given the names Marguerite and Martha. The week-end of the twins' parents was a week of indecision over the part of their parents over suitable names for the little girls.

With their daughter, Loraine, Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Elliott returned to their home on Emmons avenue Saturday evening after spending two weeks with Mrs. Elliott's parents in Port Huron.

A group of nine friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Campbell at their home on Smith avenue Wednesday by arriving prepared for a picnic supper on the Campbell lawn. They arrived early in the afternoon and spent the evening. With their daughter, Elsie, and son Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Emmons of Emmons avenue, returned Sunday evening from a two days' motor trip which led to Port Huron, Grand lot Beach and Romeo.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sharnard of Bird avenue announce the birth of a son, Charles Arthur, on Sunday, July 13.

TAXES and rising costs haven't yet robbed the BEECH-NUT Cheiving Tobacco of quality and quantity. Just as much and just as good in 1924 as in 1915.

Recent years of higher revenue, State and Federal taxes, mounting labor and raw material costs, we've kept BEECH-NUT tight sealed against a reduction in price.

That's why sales exceed 250 million packages annually. That's why every third tobacco chewer in America tentatively protests against any substitute. Make your 10c. do its duty.
