

Orion Has a Job. The Baltimore oriole builds its nest on the tip of a branch, preferably of the elm or willow. It is a great hunter of noxious insects, including hairy larvae which many birds will not touch under any consideration.

MORTGAGE SALE. DEFAULTS—having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage... Commissioner Harry H. Jackson of the Michigan Department of Public Safety has recently increased the number of State Police posts and has sent out upon the roads the new Highway Patrol squads, mounted on fast solo motorcycles.

Will Make Michigan Highways Safe

Commissioner Harry H. Jackson of the Michigan Department of Public Safety has recently increased the number of State Police posts and has sent out upon the roads the new Highway Patrol squads, mounted on fast solo motorcycles. While the State Police will operate from certain posts, they will not patrol the same stretches of highway each day but will be shifted from place to place so as to instill a more general respect to the motor vehicle laws and other laws.

ENGLISH WRITER LAUDS AMERICAN TELEPHONES. Joseph Morris, the English journalist, who is now in this country is a great admirer of the American telephone system, concerning which he says "Your telephone directory is a prodigious and awe-inspiring volume and shows to what extent you have developed the telephone system both within and without your gates. Here you have made it an everyday necessity, whereas, outside of strict business, we look upon it as a luxury."

BREWER FAILS TO SAVE SELF YOUNG FARMER PLEADS GUILTY

UNEXPECTED DESCENT ON BREWERY FINDS FORBIDDEN LIQUOR THERE. Cooperation between State Police and Federal prohibition officers resulted in the successful raiding of the National Products Company brewery in Detroit and the arrest of the president of the company, Hans W. Havemann and five employees.

STATE DETECTIVE UNCOVERS CONCLUSIVE PROOF OF MURDER OF WIFE

When Ralph Lindsley, a young farmer of St. Joseph county, pleaded guilty in circuit court to the murder of his wife, he admitted the facts which had been disclosed by unusual detective work. One morning Lindsley drove into Sturgis and reported to the chief of police that Mrs. Lindsley had committed suicide by shooting herself.

DETROIT UNITED LINES BIRMINGHAM TIMETABLE Eastern Standard Time (Effective Oct. 15, 1923) Southbound Limited—(Except Sundays) 8:48 p.m.

When they were sure of their ground the state troopers trailed a truck containing a load of half barrels full of real beer. This they seized and, on making sure of the contents, telephoned the federal prohibition officers. The latter have the right to enter a brewery at any time while the State Police must first secure a search warrant.

TRAILS BANDIT AND FINALLY GETS HIM. Demand for real beer is so extreme in the larger cities that there is a temptation for brewers to take a chance on selling it. Constant vigilance by the prohibition officers has been found to be the only remedy.

MICHIGAN HAS NAVY ON DETROIT RIVER. Commissioner Harry H. Jackson of the Department of Public Safety might now add the title of "admiral" to his name. He is in command of a fleet of four straddled speed boats which are now plying the border waters between Ontario and Michigan.

ARMSTRONG HEADS ANTI-LIQUOR SQUAD. Lieutenant Fred G. Armstrong has been chosen to head the prohibition enforcement, or "clean-up" squad of the Michigan State Police. His headquarters will be at Lansing and he will have the services of a number of investigators and also of the Department of Public Safety district inspectors throughout the state.

KNOCK A WHOLE ROW OF MAIL BOXES DOWN. A dozen rural mail boxes at the roadside near Memphis, Macomb County, were found knocked down one morning. Sergeant Frank Walker of the St. Clair detachment of the State Police found an automobile hub cap nearby. He searched the garages in Memphis until he found a car with a bent radiator and missing cap. Orville Kinsey was the owner and he pleaded guilty to destroying property and paid a fine of $50.

Markings on Eggs. Eggs of the butterfly vary, some being spherical, others conical, turbinate shaped, barrel-shaped or cylindrical, says Nature Magazine. The surface of the egg is often beautifully sculptured, the pattern being formed by series of raised or depressed dots or lines. They are also of many different colors.

Neisheit City on Earth. Constantinople is said to be the noisiest city in the world. At frequent intervals night watchmen armed with long, thick clubs beat heavily upon the stones of the street. Cats, dogs, and wandering drunks make it almost impossible to sleep. Just before dawn an army of food peddlers begins to fill the air with its clamor.
