

Forty-sixth Year—No. 47

NEW WOODWARD A "THROUGH ROAD"

Village Commission Passes New Legislation To Govern Local Traffic

ERECT WARNING SIGNS Also Enacts Law Governing Stops For Street Cars And Buses

An ordinance amending a partly-issued ordinance now in force... Village Commission passed the ordinance Monday night.

Simultaneous with the passage of the ordinance... Village Commission passed the ordinance Monday night.

A complete account of the new ordinance will be found in the issue of the Eccentric under the caption, Village Commission.

On the recommendation of Chief Anderson, the commission Monday night passed a resolution fixing the route of the new street car and bus stop work for Birmingham.

Bingham Declares Much Good Can Be Accomplished By Club In Village

The Exchange Club held its regular weekly luncheon at the Masonic temple Tuesday noon and listened to a fine talk by Dr. Harding of Detroit.

ROTARY CLUB TO START

The Exchange Club held its regular weekly luncheon at the Masonic temple Tuesday noon and listened to a fine talk by Dr. Harding of Detroit.

AMERICAN LEGION CLUB ROOM

Charles Edwards post of the American Legion are opening new club room in the rooming house building.

Community House News

Friday, March 14: House open at afternoon and evening. Saturday, 10:30 to 12:30 house open. Sunday, 10:30 to 12:30 house open.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN

Letters intended for publication in the People's Column position will be returned to the sender unless the address is given.

Editor Eccentric: I, as a resident of Eco City, feel justified in replying in reference to the remark of slums in Eco City.

ALL THEY NEEDED WAS 'MRS. MAGGIE'

The Birmingham "cops" were the guests of honor last Thursday evening in the Maccabees hall when the members of the police fire department acted as hosts.

LOCAL 'COPS' GUSSERS OF FIRE-MEN AT 'JIGGS' SUPPER AND DANCE

The Birmingham "cops" were the guests of honor last Thursday evening in the Maccabees hall when the members of the police fire department acted as hosts.

OBITUARY

Mary Louise Dosh, widow of John C. Dosh, died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. W. W. Dosh, at North Woodward avenue, Wednesday evening, of cancer, from which she had been suffering for some time.

OBITUARY

Mary Louise Dosh, widow of John C. Dosh, died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. W. W. Dosh, at North Woodward avenue, Wednesday evening, of cancer, from which she had been suffering for some time.

OBITUARY

William Stevens, died of a general bronchitis and heart trouble at the Pontiac City hospital Friday, at the age of 73 years.

BIRMINGHAM'S NEW PRESIDENT AND COMMISSIONER

At the annual village election held last Monday, Charles J. Shain, local druggist, and S. O. Wylie Bell, undertaker, were elected president and commissioner, respectively.

GREAT FUTURE PROPHESIED FOR THE BIGELOW CLAY CO.

The Eccentric wishes to apologize to the residents of Eco City for an article published in the issue of March 14, which appeared in the "columns" last week.

BUMPER CAUSES AUTO COLLISION

Breaking loose from its fastenings on one side, a bumper on the front of a car owned and driven by Stanley Byrne of 2145 1/2 street, became entangled in the left front wheel of a Buick owned by Stanley Byrne.

FIRST NATIONAL COUNCIL OF P. T. A. ELECTS OFFICERS

At the annual council meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association, held at the Hotel Hamilton last night, the first national council of the P. T. A. was organized.

GENEY CO. STARTS 'SPECIAL SERVICE'

Announcement was made this week by C. D. Geney, owner of the Geney Cleaning Co., of Pontiac, that his company would begin the day bright on a special delivery service for Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and East Troy.

PONTIAC FIRM TO GIVE QUICK DELIVERY IN BIRMINGHAM TERRITORY

Announcement was made this week by C. D. Geney, owner of the Geney Cleaning Co., of Pontiac, that his company would begin the day bright on a special delivery service for Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and East Troy.

SOUTHFIELD TWP. CAUCUS

The annual caucus of Southfield Township will be held at 7:30 p. m. on March 15, at the Town Hall in Southfield.

The "Low-Down, Dirty" Is Right

February 5, someone stole 30 of Professor S. M. Maller's chickens. According to Mr. Maller, himself, all chickens were ideal for the night and the night was a success.

"THE BIBLE IN OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS"

"The Bible in Our Public Schools" was the topic discussed at the meeting of the Woman's Literary Club Tuesday afternoon in the Community House.

But 223 Voters In Attendance At Lighted Ballot In Three Years

The plan to amend the Charter of Birmingham in three years, local electors to the number 223 turned out Monday of this week and voted favorably on the five propositions on the ballot.

"Village Players" Is Name Given To Dramatic Society

The name "Village Players" has been adopted by the dramatic society formed and organized last night.

Local Organization Elects Officers And Will Put On Plays

The name "Village Players" has been adopted by the dramatic society formed and organized last night.

INSURE ALL GOODS

Announcement was made this week by C. D. Geney, owner of the Geney Cleaning Co., of Pontiac, that his company would begin the day bright on a special delivery service for Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and East Troy.

BIG MOVIE STARS IN FILM, "HOLLYWOOD"

"Hollywood" a picture showing a star, more real movie stars than any other picture ever filmed will be presented at the Baldwin theatre.

SEVENTIETH BIRTHDAY: Seventy red candles decorated a large white cake at a birthday dinner given by Mrs. George Edwards at her home on South Woodward avenue.

Birwood Manager's Case Set For April Term Of Court; Bail - Reduced

Three things which are said to have something of a kinship took place during the past week in Birmingham. Two of them have for a background the national travesty known as the Read Act.

STOKES MAY RESIGN

The third and last item mentioned in the above paragraph is the resignation of William H. Stokes, chief of the Birmingham Police Department.

Girls Lose Fast Game In Tecumseh

Friday night at 7:30 p. m., the referee's whistle signaled the start of one of the best played games our city has ever witnessed.

B. H. S. Basketball Go Down To Glorious Defeat With Score 41-38

Friday night at 7:30 p. m., the referee's whistle signaled the start of one of the best played games our city has ever witnessed.

NEW CEMETERY IN SOUTHFIELD TWP.

A new cemetery to be called "The Park" is being planned and is to be laid out at the southeast corner of the Southfield road, a mile south of Birmingham, owned by Joseph Brooks, supervisor of Southfield Township.

DETROITERS PLAN TO LAY OUT GROUNDS ON 60-ACRE SITE SOUTH OF VILLAGE

A new cemetery to be called "The Park" is being planned and is to be laid out at the southeast corner of the Southfield road, a mile south of Birmingham, owned by Joseph Brooks, supervisor of Southfield Township.

DETROITERS PLAN TO LAY OUT GROUNDS ON 60-ACRE SITE SOUTH OF VILLAGE

A new cemetery to be called "The Park" is being planned and is to be laid out at the southeast corner of the Southfield road, a mile south of Birmingham, owned by Joseph Brooks, supervisor of Southfield Township.