Baldwin Theatre Attractions Next Week.

May Allison and Robert Ellis are co-starred in "The Woman Who Fooled Herself" the feature motion picture to be presented at the popular Baldwin Theatre next Sunday only. A special Vaudeville bill of 5 select acts will also be given headed by the personal appearance of Miss Jerry Dean, sister of Pricilla Dean and the double of Mary Pickford. Patrons are advised to come early as no doubt Miss Dean will draw record crowds as it was possible to get her for one day only.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week Mae Murray will be seen in "Fashion Row" and as an added attraction the local booster film "Royal Oak From A Little Acorn Grow" will be shown. High class Vaudeville will be an added feature.

For the last three days of the week "Bright Lights of Broadway" will be presented with a special 5 act Vaudeville bill on Thursday under the auspices of the Business Woman's Club. The regular 5 act bill of standard acts will be given on Friday and Saturday.

"Half-a-Dollar-Bill" and 5 all-star acts will be shown for the last time tonight and tomorrow with a matinee tomorrow at 2:30 P. M.

At the Royal Theatre, Royal Oak Women admittedly are fastidious but when one goes into raptures over an automobile because the color of it is probably the color of the coat they are wearing, the steamed heated cuffs, etc. Such is the case of Marilyn Sterling in "Six Clinker Lovers" the William Fox screen version of which is booked for the Royal Theatre, Royal Oak, Sunday and Monday. Ernest Trunk plays the leading role.

The ups and downs of a picture idol's career follow each other in rapid succession. Warren Baxter, prominent leading man, has taken quite a fall down the social ladder—from prince to pauper in fact. In the production of "Blow Your Own Horn" he takes the part of a penniless doughboy, while in the last F.E.O. picture he played the role of a European prince. "Blow Your Own Horn" will be the attraction at the Royal Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday.

"Polly Preferred", Roaring Comedy. At The Garrick Next Week!

Commencing Sunday night and all week with matinees Wednesday and Saturday, at the Garrick Theatre, F. Ray Constock and Morris Gest will present their latest success, "Polly Preferred", one of the greatest comedy hits in theatrical history, for a return engagement.

This charming comedy ran two consecutive seasons at the Little Theatre, New York, where it received the highest praise from every critic, as well as the audience who had the pleasure of witnessing this wonderful attraction. "Polly Preferred" also ran three months at the LaSalle Theatre, Chicago, three months at the West Street Theatre, Philadelphia, and recently closed a successful Boston engagement at the Majestic Theatre.

It is a play that everyone can enjoy, for its situations of laughter are so numerous and the comedy so rich in dialogue that one is kept in fits of laughter from the rise of the curtain to the fall of the curtain on the last act.

Guy Bolton, who is the author of "Polly Preferred" has written many successes, among them being "Turn to the Right", "Three Wise Fools", and the record play "Lightnin'".

This is the only original company of "Polly Preferred" and the same organization and production will be seen here in its entirety, as presented in Boston and New York. Supporting Miss Tobin as William Harrigan, Edward Van Sloan, William David, Mary Phillips, Myra Sears, Ethel Romey, Louis Haines, Harold Waldree, Booth Howard, David Burns and others.
