Dirty Lamps Waste Light

YOUR lamps and reflectors accumulate dust, which robs you of light. You bear a double loss—direct loss of current that you pay for and don't utilize—indirect loss in your sales; for your store is made less attractive to customers.

You may not realize that neglected lamps and reflectors may cut down the amount of your light as much as fifty per cent; or that a brightly lighted store means increased business, always.

Don't be afraid of soap and water. Keep your lamps clean. Add more, if necessary. Make your place bright and attractive. It pays big.

Next Week's Attractions At The Baldwin Theatre The management of the Baldwin Theatre has arranged some excellent programs for the coming week, chief of all being the showing Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 10-11-12 of Pola Negri in 'The Spanish Dancer' together with well balanced Vaudeville bill of 5 select acts.

At The Royal Theatre The acceptance recently of a job as a taxicab driver in New York by Francis Ormond French, prominent New York politician and former Wall Street broker, is duplicated by Richard Barthelmess, First National star, in his latest inspirational picture, 'Twenty-One' which will be shown at the Royal Theatre, Royal Oak, Sunday and Monday, March 9 and 10.

Also a Sublime Comedy, 'Steve Stanton' arriving in Chicago, Calif. to become editor of the Daily Citizen, found that all the women were wearing black gowns and that they meant considerable trouble for him.

'The Highwayman,' Unusual Comedy, at the Garrick, Detroit

Joseph Schildkraut, famous romantic actor, will come to Detroit for a week at the Garrick theatre commencing next Sunday evening in 'The Highwayman,' described as an unusual modern comedy.

The play comes direct from a record-breaking run at the Playhouse, Chicago, where the critics were lavish in their praise.

Mr. Bryant has assembled a cast of notable players for the attraction, conspicuous among whom are Elise Bartlett, leading woman; Jessie Royce Landis, niece of Judge M. Landis; John Westley, Grant Stewart, Philip Lord, Corbett Morrie, E. Earle and Hilda Graham.

Mr. Schildkraut is favorably known in Detroit and vicinity for his creation of 'Billon.' He also played in the pictures 'Orphans of the Storm' and with Norma Talmadge in 'Sons of Love.'

His new vehicle is a light, modern comedy which affords him an excellent opportunity to display his versatility, as well as his debonair manners and appearance.
