Reminiscent of Old Colonial Days

This design, in modern construction methods, is very popular. Simplicity is the chief keynote and yet the outlines of this substantial home are in no way commonplace. Its quaintness lends itself most admirably to artistic decorative treatment.

This is only one of

shown in our NEW BOOK OF HOME PLANS, among which are Colonials, Bungalows, Cottages and two-family homes, with floor plans supplementing each illustration. A copy of this beautiful book is yours for the asking. We are sure you will find it a big help in making a choice of designs for your new home.

We shall be pleased to quote you the complete cost of any home shown in this book of plans, without placing you under any obligation to purchase. Blue prints and detailed construction drawings for any of these designs are furnished free of charge if the building materials are purchased from our lumber yard. Drop in and see us.

Dean Marquis, formerly of the cathederal in Detroit, will speak at the community house on Thursday evening, December 4. This will be one of the series of community lectures of which Miss Rhetts was the first.

Members of the Noonday Club at their meeting at the community house on Thursday of last week, enjoyed relief from responsibility for the luncheon. Arrangements have been made with Mrs. Saunders to prepare the luncheon every Thursday. During the hour Miss Alta Symons was presented with a Martha Washington style china powder box, as a bridal gift from the club. Some details of the courses at Ann Arbor college and the general purpose of the school were given by Miss Dorothy Palmer.

Recent contributions to the community house include a cream pitcher and sugar bowl from Mrs. George Hendrie; books from Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Hendrix and Mrs. Robinson; tablespoons from the Noonday club, and a pitcher from Mrs. Howard.

"The Tale Of a Cat," To Be Published Soon By George H. Mitchell

Originally white, but looking for the time being as if it had taken part in a political mud-slinging campaign, a thin bedragged specimen of a cat was sitting on one of the chairs in the township office last Friday while George H. Mitchell tried first aid on it, alternately offering a saucer of milk to the dismal-eyed animal, and then getting down on his knees to direct the electric heater at it.

A fine "figger of a kitten it was."

It's face and tail had had the worst of the mud bath, while all the rest of its fur came off fairly well. You could tell what color it was supposed to be, anyway. Mr. Mitchell, since he first found it on the steps of the township office, had been working hard to get the cat into shape for the week end, applying heat and food, and engaging the janitor to give it a bath Saturday morning. Mr. Mitchell has also been investigating affairs in the feline world and will soon be able to publish a little pamphlet on "Why Cats Leave Home" with valuable information for all cat-owning householders.

Mrs. Martha L. Brooks Laid To Rest Monday

At the age of seventy-four years, after suffering for many months from a complication of diseases, Mrs. Martha Logan Brooks, widow of John C. Brooks, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ward Parks, in Ypsilanti, Thursday, November 6th.

Since the year 1855, when ten years old, she came here with her parents. Mrs. Brooks had lived in Southfield or Birmingham. In late years, after she was left a widow, Mrs. Brooks has made her home with her two daughters, Mrs. Ward Parks of Ypsilanti, and Mrs. C. G. Parks in Birmingham.

Besides the two surviving daughters, Mrs. Brooks leaves four sons, Clyde C., Dr. Clarke D. and Dr. Orville L., all of Detroit, and John H. of Southfield. A sister, Mrs. Mary Armstrong of the Southfield United Presbyterian Church, where Mrs. Brooks had been a member, read the service. Interment was made in the Southfield cemetery.

FORMER LOCAL PREACHER ON FURLOUGH FROM INDIA.

Dr. Robert Harper, pastor of the First Baptist church here for about two years, more than seven years ago, delivered the Sunday sermon in the Baptist church last Sunday morning. For the past twenty-seven years Dr. Harper has been in Burma, India, where he is a medical missionary, with a furlough only every five years. He is to return to India this week.

In returning to this country for the furlough he has had for the past year, it was necessary for Dr. Harper to make a long trip on foot to a railroad. In his sermon Sunday morning, he gave an interesting discussion of life in India.

Miss Rhetts Assists In Detroit Concerts

Miss Edith Rhetts, who gave a lecture on music appreciation before an interested audience at the community house a few weeks ago, will assist at the Young People's Concerts to be given by the Detroit Symphony orchestra at Orchestra Hall this winter, the first program being given last Saturday.

The chief purpose of these Saturday morning concerts is to give young people, and their elders as well, an opportunity to become acquainted with some of the masterpieces of music, and open up to them new ways of enjoying and appreciating good music, at a minimum admission charge.

To carry out this idea effectively, several numbers are given by the orchestra, Mr. Kolar leading, and explanations together with illustrative examples are given by Miss Rhetts. Pictures from the collection made for this purpose by Miss Rhetts, are shown on the screen as part of the program. All lectures of the course will be illustrated by lantern slides.

The topic for last Saturday's lecture was, "Compositions Actually Based on Folk Songs," showing some of the influences which inspire composers. The orchestra played Academic Overture by Brahms, Two Icelandic Melodies by Svendsen, Slovakian Rhapsody by Kaan and Marche Slave by Tschaikovsky.

POLICE ISSUE WARNING AGAINST ORDER-TAKING

Local police have been requested to warn the public regarding a man who is said to canvass the small towns claiming to represent the Harrison-Hodges and Wheeler Company of East Liverpool, Ohio. According to this company, the man travels about the country in a Chevrolet coupe covering the small towns, taking orders for dinnerware manufactured by the company. The extraordinary price that he places on the merchandise has given him a large number of orders, on which he collects a deposit.

The Harrison-Hodgson and Wheeler Company claim to have no connection with the man and ask that they be notified should the man appear here. According to the description they are able to obtain, he is 6 feet tall, about 180 pounds, thin face with high color, high forehead with long narrow chin, peculiar light blue-gray eyes, and wears a blue suit.
