"Simon Called Peter" at the Garrick Theatre for the first time. It is the story of a young man who goes down among the poor to find God. It is the story of a young man who goes down among the poor to find God. It is the story of a young man who goes down among the poor to find God.

individual responsibility, the over-coming of adversity, and homemaking. In speaking on the last topic, one lecturer urged that we should not let the American become a symbol of the American home.

Joseph Mac Gregor, employed in the Birmingham post office, said that he and his wife had just returned from their trip to the States. They had seen what they were facing from the inside of the States. They had seen the people who were facing from the inside of the States. They had seen the people who were facing from the inside of the States.

Mr. Hazel Lawler, village clerk, said that football is more brutal and worse than warfare. So many splendid boys and young men are either killed or disabled these days in football scrimmages that it is alarming.

R. Eugene Grigg, of Willett street, "I want to commend to all thoughtful persons who are interested in social progress, the best book upon the subject of Bolshevism, one that which has just been secured by the Baldwin Public Library. I refer to "Bolshevism and the United States" by Charles Edward Russell, which is a fair statement of all that is good in Bolshevism, as well as a terrible recital of the predominating evil, as practiced by Lenin and his followers in Russia.

Wiley Bell, East Maple avenue: "Some folks say that football is brutal and dangerous. I disagree. I am proud that my own son has been enough to want to play this real he-man's game. Football not only develops the muscle, but the mind as well."

Mrs. Retta Barr, a member of the Baldwin Library, heard which the Woman's Literary Club gave in stimulating interest among school children, the recent essay contest which took place on Children's Book Week.
