"Monsieur Beaucaire" Coming to the Baldwin Theater Next Week

After a lapse of two years, the well known matinee idol, Rudolph Valentino, will return to the screen in a film version of Booth Tarkenton's famous story "Monsieur Beaucaire" at the Baldwin Theatre next week Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, December 1-2-3. Considerable interest has been aroused over the showing of this new production here and no doubt record crowds will prevail at all shows. Owing to the extreme length of this production it will be necessary to eliminate the regular vaudeville bill on these dates. However, the management of the Baldwin will present a special prologue in connection with the picture and the regular house orchestra will be augmented to 12 musicians under the capable direction of Mr. Alfred Willis, the director. Two full and complete shows will be given nightly, the first starting promptly at 8:45 and the second at 9:00 p.m. Patrons are asking to come early so as to avoid the big crowds later in the evening.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday December 4-5-6, Lila Lee and James Kirkwood are co-starring in a thrilling and dramatic story. "Love's Whirlpool" a tale of a society girl and a bandit who are thrown together during a terrible shipwreck at sea. Other screen novelties and a special five act bill of Standard Vaudeville will also be seen.

Next Sunday only, November 30, Andree Lafayette and a capable cast will be the film attraction in "Why Get Married?" with a big bill of Vaudeville as an added feature. Four full shows are now being given every
