Armistice Day

November 11 marks the fifth anniversary since the close of the World War. In token of the honor and respect which we bear to those who helped to bring this struggle to an end...

To us were left problems to solve which taxed the ingenuity of Nations. Let us help in the solution of the problems by taking an intelligent attitude toward them and by eliminating extravagance from our own personal affairs.

This bank can help you and you can help us in shouldering this responsibility.
