Eco City News

Church Fund Teams Working
Each team of the twelve, working for the church fund, endeavors to plan some activity during the week to assist in raising its quota. Thursday evening of last week one of the groups gave a "wintle roast" out-of-doors, with great financial success.

Hallowe'en Party
At the Community Chapel Tuesday evening a large number of Eco-City members enjoyed a Hallowe'en party given by the community. Although a little in advance of Hallowe'en, the games and decorations had all of the Hallowe'en atmosphere.

Saginaw Guests
Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillips of Saginaw, who are visiting in California for the winter, stopped over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Wingate on Smith avenue.

Country Fair at the Bannockburn
The Country Fair at the Bannockburn Avenue Congregational church last Saturday evening was delightfully entertaining in its originality and great variety. The fair was given by captains of the twelve teams working on the ten-week fund drive to complete the church.

Present Day Club
The Present Day Club has entertained this week, Tuesday evening, by Mrs. O. S. Baker on Smith avenue. Besides holding the regular meeting, three new applicants were admitted to membership.

American honey is being used in England as a conserve at breakfast or tea time.

(1) The utter lack of confidence which is the direct result of continued non-enforcement of the law is the most serious problem now facing the people of this nation.

(2) I believe the true method of determining whether or not a law is bad is to honestly enforce it.

(3) I believe the true method of proving to all the people that a law is good is to honestly enforce it.

(4) I believe the Prosecutor's Office should co-operate in every way with those men and women of this county who are striving to make their various communities better, cleaner, and safer places in which to live and rear their children.

(5) May I have your support?
