At her home on Oakland avenue, Miss Pearle Lamb was hostess at luncheon last Saturday for a small group of friends. Included in the guests were Mrs. Albert Stanley of Rochester, Mrs. Lavern Lavansaler, Mrs. G. J. Scott and Mrs. Freeman Robbins all of Royal Oak, and Mrs. Robert McClelland.

Miss Marjorie McDonald, of Ypsilanti was the week-end guest of Miss Grace Wiley at her home on Southfield avenue.

SOCIETY

Two Dances Occupy Society Next Week

Masonic Temple and Dunning's Barn To Be Scenes Of Gayety

The interest of society during the next week will be centered upon the two brilliant dances that are scheduled for the fore part of the week. Little has been planned for the first of the week in the way of individual entertaining, with the exception of numerous small dinner dances that will precede the dances.

The first of the two dances has been arranged by the O. E. S. to occur on Tuesday evening in the Masonic Temple, where a committee, chairmanned by Mrs. D. Montgomery, will entertain with a Hallowe'en dance.

Besides a novel array of Hallowe'en decorating to be done in a most elaborate fashion, a group of entertainers has been obtained to add charm to the occasion. Miss Marion Berdan, who has recently opened dancing classes in Birmingham, will present several of her Detroit pupils in a series of dances. She has made preparations for an Egyptian dancer, an old fashioned dance, and several novelty dances to be presented during the intermissions.

The Gordon Melody Boys have been engaged to furnish music for dancing, on the first floor of the Temple.

Seemingly abetted by the weather in their plans for a barn dance at Dunning's Barn next Wednesday evening, the enthusiastic workers from the Michigan Branch of the National Woman's Party are completing their preparations. Plans are being laid to accomodate the large numbers that have been indicated would attend, from the reservations already made.

The crispness of the air assures the comfort of dancing in the barn and the decorations to be in the Hallowe'en design promise splendor with the quantities of vivid autumn leaves. Cornstalks and pumpkins are to be used in connection with the leaves for decoration.

Mrs. George T. Hendrie and Mrs. W. N. Whittemore of Bloomfield Hills are handling the sale of tickets.

Miss Eleanor Handy Makes Formal Bow In Detroit Social Set

A Bloomfield Hills girl, Miss s Eleanor Handy, was the first debutante to make her formal bow to Detroit society this season at a ball at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club last Friday, given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Standart, who make their summer home just west of Birmingham. Miss Handy was lovely in an ivory satin gown and carried a colorful corsage, the gift of Mr. Standart. The only decorations about the receiving room were the debutante's gift bouquets. Miss Harriet Gregg of Cleveland, a schoolmate of Miss Handy at the Ely Court school, assisted in receiving the guests.

Golf Luncheon

Members of the Woman's District Golf Association have arranged with a luncheon today to be served at the Detroit Athletic Club for all of their members.

The last meeting of the Woman's District Association, for hours, ended on October 14, at the Plum Hollow Golf Club. Mrs. F. E. Fisher of North Woodward avenue, with a score of 95, won the club's special day prize and in playing off three ties in low net, also won second position.

Mrs. Donovan Returning

Mrs. T. R. Donovan is expected to return home, Valhalla, about the first of November. She is arriving in New York this week on board the Mauretania, coming from England.

Mr. Erskine A Guest Here

An interesting guest in the village last week was Howard M. Erskine from New York City who formerly made his home here on Ravine Road. During his stay here Mr. Erskine was the guest of Dr. Harry Hosmer at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Last Friday evening Dr. and Mrs. George P. Rayhale were hosts at a dinner dance at their home in Tooting Lane for Mr. Erskine. Their guests list included old friends of Mr. Erskine.

Return From California.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Bell returned Saturday from California where they have visited Los Angeles, Pasadena, and other parts of the state during the past month. Mr. and Mrs. Bell motored out with friends from California, returning by train.

Return From Southwest

Following more than two months spent in visiting friends and relatives, Mrs. George M. Rounds with her two children, Helen Noreen and George, Jr., returned to her home on Harmon avenue Sunday. During their trip they spent some time in San Antonio, Texas, Kansas City, Mo., and Chicago.

Attend O. E. S. Chapter.

Mrs. Winnifred Burkman and Mrs. R. J. Taylor of Southfield avenue returned last Friday from Grand Rapids where they spent the week attending the Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. The program, which was almost continuous during the week, was held in the armory in order to accomodate the 5000 delegates who attended the meeting. Mrs. Dolly Buckingham of Detroit, formerly a Royal Oak woman, was elected Worthy Grand Matron, and Peter Larson of Pontiac was elected Worthy Grand Patron. Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Burkman made the trip from here by motor.

At luncheon Tuesday, Mrs. Harry Potter entertained for St. Margaret's Guild of St. James church, at her home on Greenwood avenue. Following luncheon the women held their business meeting.

Mrs. W. F. G. Ross expects to leave for Chicago the latter part of next week to join Mr. Ross who has transferred his business there. They have sold their home on Hanna street and are moving this week.

M. S. Glover of North Woodward avenue was in Cleveland a few days this week on business.

RESERVATIONS BEING MADE FOR BRIDGE-TEA BY UNIVERSITY WOMEN

Reservations that have been made for the bridge-tea on Nov. 7 at the home of Mrs. Leigh Lynch of Dorchester road, give promise of a successful affair. The tea will be sponsored by the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women who are raising funds for the woman's club in Washington, D.C. The reservations are being handled through a committee consisting of Mrs. H. J. Connine, Mrs. Joseph Little, Mrs. Carleton C. Patterson and Mrs. I. W. Ilett.

Villagers To Attend Wisconsin--"U" Game

The football game at Ann Arbor will draw generously from the Birmingham sport lovers tomorrow for the Michigan-Wisconsin game. A large number are expected to drive to Ann Arbor early tomorrow from here. some of whom will remain for the fraternity house dances following the game. Among those who have expressed interest in attending are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Loren T. Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Halgren, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Whiting Raymond, who will motor over with the Albert Wasey's.

EPISCOPAL CHOIR IS ENTERTAINED AT FARM

Mrs. Harry J. Conniff, Bayne Road and Mrs. Walter M. Gilbert, Park street, entertained jointly last evening at the annual entertainment of the choir of the Episcopal church. Adams Road, for the choir, and their husbands and friends of the St. Jude Episcopal church. During the season the choir is entertained almost monthly by members of the church, ested in the work, and the dinner last night started the social life of the choir for the season. Places were laid for twenty-five guests.

Appears In Musicale

Miss Dora Richman of Adams Road appeared on the program of the Pontiac Tuesday Musicale at their first meeting of this season. The musicale was given at the home of Mrs. E. P. Waldron of Bloomfield Hills last Tuesday afternoon.

Back From California

James Vhay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Vhay of Bloomfield Hills, and Morris Draper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris D. Draper, of Bloomfield Hills, returned Monday from California where they have been for several months. James Vhay was visiting an aunt, and Morris, who went west to attend school at the University of California in Berkeley, arrived too late for registration. The boys made the trip west by motor, spending part of their time in Los Angeles and a part in San Francisco, returning by train.

Birthday Party

An interesting party on this week's calendar is scheduled for tomorrow night when Mrs. Ralph Scott will entertain, honoring her husband's birthday. She has invited twelve be the guests at a bridge-supper at their home on Park street. The Hallowe'en motif will be followed in the decorations and appointments, especially the table.

Drive To Indianapolis

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Fisher of Woodward avenue started on a motor trip to Indianapolis, Ind., where they will visit relatives for a few days. Mrs. Fisher, who was formerly Miss Grace Strickland of Detroit, is a native of Indianapolis.

The annual meeting of the Oakland county Red Cross chapter will be held at the Board of Commerce Rooms in Pontiac on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 26, at 2:30 o'clock. A large attendance is especially desired, as reports will be read by the various committees.

Entertain Card Club

The F. W. Boynton entertained the Monday Evening Card Club on their regular meeting day this week at their home on Poppleton avenue, and followed it with bridge and dancing.

At their home on Southfield avenue Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Baker were hosts to fourteen at four o'clock dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schunk of Detroit were guests over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bayley on East Maple avenue.

Mrs. R. J. Taylor of Southfield avenue leaves today for East Lansing to bring her daughter, Maxine, home from M. A. C. for the week-end. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and their children, Maxine and Virginia, will attend the football game at Ann Arbor.

Miss Dora Richman of Adams Road was among the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gensburg at their new home in Detroit when they entertained with a dinner dance, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Middleton of Chicago will arrive today to spend the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. D. V. Williamson, at her home on Brookside Drive.

After spending the week-end in Detroit with Mrs. F. J. Renaud, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Vincent returned to their home on Wallace Street Monday. Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Vincent were entertained informally at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arch P. Wigle at their home in the Boulevard.

Dinner-Dance To Open Sunset Hills

Invitations have been issued this week to the formal opening, tonight and tomorrow night, of the new Sunset Hills Country Club, which is situated between Orchard and Pine lakes, in the Old T. O. Millington home. The opening will continue for two evenings to accomodate the large number of members who have made reservations for the dinner-dance.

In the list of members of the new club are found a large number of local names, and many Birmingham people have made reservations for the opening.

The club will remain open for the winter and will make a special feature of winter sports. Mrs. M. Fraser and her daughter, Miss Jean Fraser, of the Lone Pine Tea House, have been responsible for the formation of the new club.

Sixteen of the young matrons of the village will be guests of Mrs. Louis M. Baker at bridge this afternoon at the baker home on East Maple avenue. In her decorations, Mrs. Baker is using bebe "mums" in shades of bronze.

Mrs. Zel Dowling of Quarton and Cranbrook roads is in New York and will not be back in Birmingham for a week or more.

Mrs. H. N. Davock of Dewey street is being visited by her little thirteen-year old relative, Donald Marshall of Valparaiso, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Little, who have been occupying a home on Worth street, this week have moved into their new home on Ridgedale avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Starr, who have been residing on Brown avenue, have taken the home vacated by the Littles on Worth street.

Mrs. Jerome Jones and I. M. Clement are at the Detroit Boat Club in Cleveland this week. They have been entertained for the last two days at Tuesday night, Ohio, 3d Lexington, Kentucky.

Miss Helen Grant, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Stephen Fisher, Buckingham avenue, during the last few months, left Sunday for her home in Valley Park, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. William Elwood of Oakland avenue entertained at luncheon on Thursday of last week by Mrs. Lottie Strickland of Pontiac. On Friday Mr. and Mrs. Elwood took a 100 mile motor trip out through Orion and Richmond.

Mrs. M. G. Ewer of Maywood road went to Flint on Monday to spend the week with Mrs. W. J. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gladden of Brown Street were called over the week-end by Mr. Gladden's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Gladden of Owosso.

For Mrs. Charlotte Gibson of Argus street, who is moving to Bakersfield, California, members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion entertained at a luncheon last Friday at the home of Mrs. John MacGregor on Hamilton avenue. The Hallowe'en scheme was used in decorations and covers were laid for 12 guests.

Mrs. George Anderson entertained at bridge-luncheon yesterday for 12 guests at her home on Ridgedale avenue.

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, Dept. of Michigan, will be held at St. James church on Monday, October 27. Bishop Lewis Boynton Sanford, Bishop of California, will be the speaker. Lunch will be served at 12:30 by the League of St. James' Women. Mrs. Harry J. Corey is general chairman of the luncheon.

Mrs. George H. Mitchell of Brownstreet and Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis of Worth Road are among the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gerlach at their home on Lake Angelus.

Mrs. John Baird entertained at her home on Park street for Mr. and Mrs. James MacVicke, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clough and George Collins, all of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bradley of Park street will entertain Miss Eleanor Laughgraves and Marie Young, both of Toledo last Friday where they spent the week-end.

To surprise Mr. Fisher, whose birthday it was, a group of thirty of the married set farmed unexpectedly at Walnut Glen, the home of the Fred E. Fishers last Friday evening. They served a potluck dinner

Splendid String Of Horses Entered In Annual Hunt Races

More than 10,000 persons are expected to attend the 26th annual Bloomfield Open Hunt races which will be staged next Saturday, November 1. Entries have been made from Chicago, Cleveland and Toronto, besides those from the Hills and Grosse Pointe, for the nine steeplechase and two Point-to-Point races.

The races that started at the local Hunt Club six years ago in a very modest manner have this year developed into one of the important meets of the season in the middle west. In addition to the races, there have been added two English horse-race features; the barbecue, which will precede the races, is one of the innovations, while the other is a fashion show by exclusive Detroit shops who will parade mannequins during the races.

For the barbecue, club chefs have ordered six quarters of young steer, eight sheep, six lambs, and thousands of buns and gallons of sauce. The barbecue will be served on the grounds between 12 and 1:30 p. m., when the races start.

The race course will lead over a part of three farms, properties of W. D. Fosdick, E. P. Hammond, Oakdale farm, and the Cosgrave properties, taking in the same course as last year. There are to be three steeplechase races, two with the regulation cut jumps, and one over a brush course. Two flat races are also to be run.

Among the horses that have made names for themselves from Detroit, Grosse Pointe and Bloomfield Hills that will enter the races are Wesson Sergeant, "Lady Rader", Gordon Mendelssohn's "Small Talk," Edsel B. Ford's "Red Coat," Mrs. Peck's Cincinnati, Mankins, Glenary, and Barrymore other horses that have been entered to date.

Besides attracting horsemen from all over the South, the event will be one of great interest to society. Numbered on the list of stockholders of the club are Hammonds, George T. Hendries, and Harry Bishop, Henrietta, E. S. Nichols, Edward G. Booth, the C. C. Winninghams, T. W. Jacksons, T. R. Donovans, and James Cranson from Bloomfield Hills.

Entrance to the race course this year will vary from previous years, instead of entering from South Boulevard, Pontiac, as formerly, it has been planned to have all automobiles leave Woodward avenue at Opdyke road, just north of Bloomfield Center, continuing north over a route to be well marked by arrows. This will make it possible for late arrivals to enter during the time of the races without any interference.

Death of S. L. Depew Casts Shadow Over Hills Festivities

In Bloomfield Hills, where S. L. Depew of Grosse Pointe was a familiar figure, much grief over his sudden death Monday night on a Michigan Central train at Harmon, N.Y., is evidenced. Mr. and Mrs. Depew were returning from Miami, Florida, where Mr. Depew's horse, "Stilts," won the four mile race Saturday, existing a new high record for point to point races.

Social activities in the Hills planned for this week and next have been given up entirely or have become subdued. The death of Mr. Depew will likely cast a shadow over the events staged by the Bloomfield Open Hunt next Saturday, November 1. He was entered to enter "Stilts" in certain of the races.

Mr. Depew was 43 years old. He is survived by his wife, the former Miss Edith Dodge, daughter of the late John Dodge, and one son of the late Lawrence Depew. He was born in Detroit, where he spent his entire life. Besides his widow, he leaves two daughters, Anne, seven years old, and Valatie, 13; his mother Mrs. Frederick F. Wormer, of Detroit, and a brother, Frederick Depew of Detroit.

GOTHAM POLICE USE HAND LIGHTS TO GUIDE TRAFFIC

Something new in traffic-directing equipment—a small, red light attached like a wrist watch to the policeman's hand—has been introduced in New York.

The new device consists of a two-inch bull's-eye operated by an electric battery in the traffic patrolman's hip pocket. The face on the bull's-eye is a heavy, red magnifying glass, behind which is the bulb. When the arm is raised the light flashes on, and is shut off when the arm is lowered. It is likely to be put into use throughout the city.
