Eco City News

Beers Entertain

A delightful surprise party for Mr. and Mrs. Wright of Redford was given last Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Beers at their home. The party honored the birthdays of the Wrights which fall on the same day. Besides eight friends of the couple from Detroit the guests included from Eco City, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Beebe and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Laughlin. At progressive pedro, which entertained the guests during the evening, Mrs. Tom Lorrenie and Charles Wright won the prizes on high scores. At twelve o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Beers served supper.

Laughlin's Dog Seriously Injured

On Woodward avenue Sunday afternoon, an airedale pedigreed puppy, the pet of Jane and Harry Laughlin of Bird avenue, was hit by an automobile and seriously injured. The dog was taken to a doctor but his bones were badly broken and no hope was expressed for his recovery.

Present Day Club Arrange Party

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. M. H. Stevens was hostess to the members of the Present Day Club at her home when a committee was appointed to arrange for a Hallowe'en party. The members of the club was increased to twenty-five and the next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. R. Ogden of Smith avenue on October 7.

Civic Association Starts Work.

At a meeting Friday evening of the Eco Civic Association the question of the social life of the community was discussed. Two plans for anticipated entertainments were placed in the hands of the entertainment committee and the dance committee. The vote is to have the form of dinner with speakers on subjects of interest to the Eco City people. The other will be a dance for all of the community, the place and conditions to be decided by the committee.

The Christmas committee was given instructions by the officers on making preparations for a general community children's day and authorized to start their work at once.

The committee appointed to investigate the matter of a self-governing Eco made a report, but little has been attained in this matter. Nothing definite could be reported, but the meeting tonight will likely show some rapid strides in this work. As the work now being undertaken affects the property holders here so deeply, the entire community is urged to take advantage of these meetings. They will be held twice monthly throughout the winter.

Over the last week-end Mr. and Mrs. Guy Laughlin of Bird avenue entertained for Mrs. George Yorke of Pittsburgh, Pa., who was spending several days here. Mrs. Yorke left for her home Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. L. Siegman of Detroit were also Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Richards of Detroit took possession of their new home on Smith avenue yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Chase of Smith avenue entertained at lunch Sunday evening for Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kennaugh and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson and children and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Neff all of Detroit.

Mrs. H. D. Meyers and Miss Margaret Duff of Oxford arrived Friday from Oxford at the home of Mrs. M. H. Stevens where Miss Duff spent the day and Mrs. Meyers remained for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith of Smith avenue announce the birth of a son, on September 20.

At Schlaack's Meat Market in Birmingham the Ladies Society of the Immaculate Avenue Congregational church will have a very delightful bake sale last Saturday afternoon.

Grandmother Coleman arrived this week to spend two months with her son Edmond and family. She will be at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Musselman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Eyfe returned to their home on Davis avenue Sunday from Toronto where they went on a week's motor trip.

Mrs. M. Converse of Bird avenue is spending several weeks with her mother in Pontiac.

Mrs. Frank Green returned to her home on Smith avenue Saturday after spending the past week with her daughter, Mrs. J. Bunston of Down City.

Mrs. Belle Parrin of Marshall arrived recently at the home of her sister Mrs. Vern Dibble on Davis avenue, where she is expected to spend several months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gonzen of Emmons avenue had as their guest over Sunday Charles Doan of Detroit.

During the past week Mrs. Earl Bisso of Emmons avenue was in Detroit visiting where she divided her time between the homes of Mrs. Frank Schultz and Mrs. Roy Chamberlain.

Mrs. M. C. Miller and son Arthur of Smith avenue and Mrs. Roy Chadwater and daughter, Christiana of Bird avenue, motored to Owosso last Friday where they visited Mr. Chadwater's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Meyers and children of Emmons avenue spent last week-end in Richmond with Mr. Otto Hart, Mrs. Meyer's mother.

Miss Frances Von Kass, Miss Katherine Stephens, Albert Krueger, all of Detroit, and Howard Merchant of Owosso were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bisso at their home on Emmons avenue last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Elliott of Emmons avenue entertained Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Uller and Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Detroit.

Frank Haar of Pontiac was an all day guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gable on Davis avenue last Friday.
