

SECRET

Society From All Over To See Races Miss Young To Wed T. F. Barbier Nov. 12

In addition to the sporting aspect of the Bloomfield Open Hunt races, tomorrow in Bloomfield Hills...

100 ARE EXPECTED AT A. A. U. M. BRIDGE-TEA

Plans to seat one hundred women at bridge at the home of Mrs. Leigh Lynch on Dorchester Road...

NEW RESIDENTS

Among the recent additions to the Village younger society are Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lett, and Mrs. C. C. Patterson...

Attends Father's Funeral

Miss A. D. Melay of Frank Street, left early Sunday morning for Detroit where she will be during the funeral services for her father...

From Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Haldsted have returned from their wedding trip and are staying a few weeks with the club...

Bishop Speaks Here

The League of St. James Women will host the Women's Auxiliary, Diocese of Michigan...

Attend Dinner-Dance

After attending the dinner-dance of the Little Sisters of the Holy Family at the Wolcott Hotel...

St. James Women

The play for the week of the League of St. James Women will be in the assembly room...

Westminster Guild

Mrs. C. E. Sears, Mrs. W. T. E. J. Fausch and Mrs. E. J. Fausch will be the luncheon and meeting of the Westminster Guild...

The Burns Henrys

The Burns Henrys will occupy their home in Bloomfield Hills for the Open Hunt races...

After a few weeks' sojourn in the city

Mrs. M. S. L. Schorr returned to Birmingham this week with her daughter, Cornelia...

At her home on Rivenock avenue

Mrs. John Saunders entertained at bridge last Tuesday afternoon at the home of the young matrons...

Miss Elsie Gueen of Detroit was

Miss Elsie Gueen of Detroit was the guest of Mrs. Fred S. Ross at her home on Willets Street...

Division No. 1, Ladies Church on

Following a program of several weeks, Miss Doris Richmond of Adams Road was the guest of the Pontiac Tuesday Musical and appears on their Schubert Program...

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burris and their son

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burris and their son, Ellwood, of West Park are spending two weeks with Mr. Burris' parents at Hesperia, Michigan...

Dance At Dunning's Barn Wednesday Eve. Sunset Hills Club Draws Many Hills And Village Folks

The barn dance at Dunning's Barn Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Sunset Hills Club...

100 ARE EXPECTED AT A. A. U. M. BRIDGE-TEA

Plans to seat one hundred women at bridge at the home of Mrs. Leigh Lynch on Dorchester Road...

NEW RESIDENTS

Among the recent additions to the Village younger society are Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lett, and Mrs. C. C. Patterson...

Attends Father's Funeral

Miss A. D. Melay of Frank Street, left early Sunday morning for Detroit where she will be during the funeral services for her father...

From Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Haldsted have returned from their wedding trip and are staying a few weeks with the club...

Bishop Speaks Here

The League of St. James Women will host the Women's Auxiliary, Diocese of Michigan...

Attend Dinner-Dance

After attending the dinner-dance of the Little Sisters of the Holy Family at the Wolcott Hotel...

St. James Women

The play for the week of the League of St. James Women will be in the assembly room...

Westminster Guild

Mrs. C. E. Sears, Mrs. W. T. E. J. Fausch and Mrs. E. J. Fausch will be the luncheon and meeting of the Westminster Guild...

The Burns Henrys

The Burns Henrys will occupy their home in Bloomfield Hills for the Open Hunt races...

After a few weeks' sojourn in the city

Mrs. M. S. L. Schorr returned to Birmingham this week with her daughter, Cornelia...

At her home on Rivenock avenue

Mrs. John Saunders entertained at bridge last Tuesday afternoon at the home of the young matrons...

Miss Elsie Gueen of Detroit was

Miss Elsie Gueen of Detroit was the guest of Mrs. Fred S. Ross at her home on Willets Street...

Division No. 1, Ladies Church on

Following a program of several weeks, Miss Doris Richmond of Adams Road was the guest of the Pontiac Tuesday Musical and appears on their Schubert Program...

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burris and their son

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burris and their son, Ellwood, of West Park are spending two weeks with Mr. Burris' parents at Hesperia, Michigan...

LITERARY MEMBERS TO VIEW CATHEDRAL PICTURES TUESDAY

Besides an especially interesting program planned for the meeting of the Women's Literary Club at the cathedral pictures Tuesday afternoon...

100 ARE EXPECTED AT A. A. U. M. BRIDGE-TEA

Plans to seat one hundred women at bridge at the home of Mrs. Leigh Lynch on Dorchester Road...

NEW RESIDENTS

Among the recent additions to the Village younger society are Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lett, and Mrs. C. C. Patterson...

Attends Father's Funeral

Miss A. D. Melay of Frank Street, left early Sunday morning for Detroit where she will be during the funeral services for her father...

From Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Haldsted have returned from their wedding trip and are staying a few weeks with the club...

Bishop Speaks Here

The League of St. James Women will host the Women's Auxiliary, Diocese of Michigan...

Attend Dinner-Dance

After attending the dinner-dance of the Little Sisters of the Holy Family at the Wolcott Hotel...

St. James Women

The play for the week of the League of St. James Women will be in the assembly room...

Westminster Guild

Mrs. C. E. Sears, Mrs. W. T. E. J. Fausch and Mrs. E. J. Fausch will be the luncheon and meeting of the Westminster Guild...

The Burns Henrys

The Burns Henrys will occupy their home in Bloomfield Hills for the Open Hunt races...

After a few weeks' sojourn in the city

Mrs. M. S. L. Schorr returned to Birmingham this week with her daughter, Cornelia...

At her home on Rivenock avenue

Mrs. John Saunders entertained at bridge last Tuesday afternoon at the home of the young matrons...

Miss Elsie Gueen of Detroit was

Miss Elsie Gueen of Detroit was the guest of Mrs. Fred S. Ross at her home on Willets Street...

Division No. 1, Ladies Church on

Following a program of several weeks, Miss Doris Richmond of Adams Road was the guest of the Pontiac Tuesday Musical and appears on their Schubert Program...

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burris and their son

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burris and their son, Ellwood, of West Park are spending two weeks with Mr. Burris' parents at Hesperia, Michigan...

CLASSIFIED ADS

UNDER THIS HEADING - "For Rent," etc., cash, per week, for each consecutive insertion of same ad. 1c per word for each ad not paid in advance. All copy must be in inserted. Our telephone numbers are 111 and 112.

Under this heading - "For Rent," etc., cash, per week, for each consecutive insertion of same ad. 1c per word for each ad not paid in advance. All copy must be in inserted. Our telephone numbers are 111 and 112.

Advertisement for 'The Business Institute' featuring 'THREE WEEKS AGO' testimonial and 'HOW WILL YOU LEAVE YOUR ESTATE?' headline. Includes contact information for H.K. Glidden and The Conservatory.