SOCIETY RESIDENCY WOMEN'S MEETINGS

Busy Year For Local Branch To Start September 17 At Home of Mrs. Miner

Activities of the Association of University Women here will begin this fall with the first meeting September 17 at the home of Mrs. T. W. Miner, Pine Lake. The annual picnic supper will follow the meeting with the husbands of the members will be the guests.

Educational and legislative matters will receive much attention from the local organization this winter. The subject of Federal aid for women, which will be before the legislature this year, will form the discussion of the October meeting and will be taken up also at later meetings.

Although the work of the organization will not be concentrated on any one particular subject this season, all divisions will be unusually active. Some time will also be devoted to the promotion of the Red Cross fund which has been supported heartily by the organization during the past year.

Chairmen for the various committees who will work during the year are: Mrs. Harold C. Burt, chairman of the year; Mrs. Arthur Halgren, Round Table; and Mrs. Thomas Doremus, Automobiles.

Dr. and Mrs. George P. Raynolds of Toxey Lane, Birmingham, will host the first Sunday for Wyoming. The object of their trip was to be a horse back trip through the national park. They are expected back in about two weeks.

Rev. McCurdy Returns After vacationing in Fortester during the month of August, Rev. McCurdy and his mother, Mrs. Helen T. McCurdy, returned on Saturday evening to the Rectory. Rev. McCurdy and her son were guests of the Daniel Damons of Lovonia, New York, during the trip.

Mrs. Frank Briscoe and her son, John, returned from their motor trip to Montreal on Monday. Mrs. Briscoe was accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Briscoe of Birmingham. A motor trip to Montreal was planned that Mr. Briscoe, who is vacationing in a north-western valley, would embark on a motor trip to Montreal.
