STATE OF MICHIGAN—The Probate Court for the County of Oakland. At a session of said Court, held at the Probate Office in the City of Pontiac, in said County, on the 17th day of September, A. D. 1924.
 Present, Hon. Ross Stockwell, Judge of Probate.
 In the Matter of the Estate of Della A. Hutton, Deceased.
 The First National Bank of Birmingham, executor of said estate, having filed in said court a petition praying that the time for the presentation of claims against said estate be limited and that a time and place be designated for receiving, examining and adjusting all claims and demands against said deceased and before said court.
 It is ordered, that four months from this date be allowed for creditors to present claims against said estate.
 It is further ordered, that the 19th day of January, 1925, at eight o'clock in the forenoon, at said probate office, be and is hereby appointed for the examination and adjustment of all claims against said estate.
 ROSS STOCKWELL, Judge of Probate.

CLASS OF "TWENTY-THREE" IN THE FUTURE
 'Twas many and many a year ago
 That the class of "Twenty-Three"
 Left school forever and started across
 Life's deep and treacherous sea.
 We were very, very happy then
 As we started out in life;
 Now Milton is the President,
 And Eleanor his wife.
 Warren Reid ran for President
 Along with Thelma's Weir.
 But when they were defeated
 They never shed a tear.
 And "Billie" studies painting
 In sunny Italy
 And draws all kinds of pictures
 Of the class of Twenty-Three.
 And I forgot "Nick" Carter
 He too's in Italy
 He's interested in painting—
 Why?—Oh! Can't you see?
 And little Beulah Keady
 Is now a pirate ho!
 Just now her craft's a sailing
 In the Gulf of Mexico.
 And Claire and Nancy Fleur
 Are debutantes in France
 That every dance or style they start
 Is bound to hold full sway.
 Virginia Hupp is happy
 'Cause she's married to Specs Ross
 Who has a lot of money
 But don't dare say, "I'm boss!"
 You know in high school—Edwin
 Was always hunting "DEER"
 But he doesn't need the North Woods
 now
 For he's found his little "DEAR."
 And Gladys Reeder's looking 20
 As only Gladys can
 For just now she is nursing
 A very rich young man.
 And "Wibbie" and her Tommie
 Are living in great style
 On a Trans-Atlantic steamer
 That stops once in a while.
 And "Ducky" Rosso's busy
 A sewing hems and tucks
 For all the little "Ducks."
 Of all the little "Ducks."
 And then you know Bill Story
 The multi-millionaire
 The gossip says his business is
 To break hearts everywhere.
 And Katherine Ferguson's a judge
 And very famous now
 But it is said that soon she'll be
 Mrs. Larry Howe.
 Florence Bingham's awfully happy
 And pleased as she can be
 For 'I've heard that she's just captured
 Husband number three.
 And Mickey Taylor is a star
 A star in the movie land
 It's said she wears a diamond
 On every finger of her hand.
 And "Al" Vlet's a diver,
 The champion of the land
 The moment she is sitting
 On the warm Pacific sand.
 The prize debtors of the land
 Are Peg Berz and Bus, McKnight
 But when they've finished arguing
 Bus always claims he's right.
 I've just read in the paper
 Where Bob Slave takes the prize
 The best young golfer in the world
 My! How he did rise!
 Grace Nixon—I mean Stephens
 Lives on a little farm
 And when she's cooked Ed's supper
 She calls him from the barn.
 And then you know Clinch Crocker
 The sheik of Twenty-Three.
 He's king of the Sahara
 The Sheik of Araby.
 Milton Parks is a chemist
 And deals with earth's erosion
 But when he puts his chemicals in
 There's always a great explosion.
 There's no better sheriff in all Detroit
 Than just our funny "Pete"
 The kids are all scared stiff of him
 When they see him on his beat.
 Bill Drake looks just like Dobby
 You'd think he was his twin
 For Bill is getting awfully fat
 And Dobby's growing thin.
 And then you know Clark Hallowick
 The funny Movie Fan
 He ran away to Hollywood
 And now's a famous man.
 Now all you other class-mates
 What shall I have you do?
 I'll let you have your own sweet way
 'Cause I must say, "Adieu."
 But get your pens and paper
 Dear old Class of Twenty-Three
 And write a nice long letter
