Fifty Years Elapse—Then Mr. And Mrs. V. N. Denison Marry Again

Fifty years and three days after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Victor N. Denison celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Saturday at their home on 112 South Pierce street, in the presence of eight children.

Informal ceremonies were held late in the morning, when the bride, attired in lace, caught up with roses, came down the stairway on the arm of her son, Ray, while Mendelsohn's "Wedding March" was played.

Immediately after the ceremony, dinner was served to 61 people by Mrs. Lester Purdy, Mrs. Lynn Greene, and Mrs. Blanche Blumberg.

The bride's table was decorated in yellow, with jonquils for centerpiece and favors for the guests in burnt orange and amber shades.

Several valuable gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Denison among which were a radio lamp in California redwood, a pair and a pair of pale green glass candlesticks.

Mr. and Mrs. Denison were married fifty years ago in Pontiac by the Rev. Frank G. Cressy and immediately after the wedding went to their home in Levee.
