EASTER

Easter skies are cloudless Easter Day is fair. Hearts are light and happy. Not a trace of care.

Lovely Easter lilies In their perfect bloom With the peace of Easter Blend their sweet perfume. Thoughts of winter vanish, Scattering its gloom, Christ we know is risen. Empty is the tomb.

Children sing at Easter, All in bright array, Like the rippling streamlets, Dancing on their way, Trees and grass are calling "Spring is here to stay," Every heart is singing "Welcome Easter Day."

—Beatrice McDonald.
