Dry Look to Next Generation for Victory in Fight for Prohibition

CONSENSUS of opinion... Francis Scott McBride... The liquor problem will be no greater in this country than it is in the pioneer dry states where it is as dry as the desert and where it is accepted as one of the blessings of civilization.

THOMAS MEIGHAN IN 'THE MAN WHO FOUND HIMSELF' AT THE BALDWIN THEATRE

Thomas Meighan, the popular screen idol, is the current attraction at the Baldwin Theatre, Royal Oak, at the final three days of this week.

Latest Earring

Mrs. Beaumont Alexander of London arrived in New York wearing the latest novelty in earrings. Instead of dangling against her face, she wears a pair of earrings that she claims tickle the top and bottom of her ears.

called 'The King of the Ivories.' He broadcast from Station WJOL at Jefferson City, Mo., and has brought with him to vaudeville, J. M. Witten, the prize-winning announcer from that station. The setting for Mr. Snodgrass' act is a faithful reproduction of the mahogany room in the dome of the State Capitol at Jefferson City. Countless thousands who have heard him play over the air from that station will undoubtedly be eager to see and hear him.

FAMILY LIFE COMEDY AT BONSTELLE NEXT WEEK

Two young writers sprung on the horizon last season with a comedy of American family life known as 'Partridge Presents' which has become an enviable run at the Belmont Theatre, New York, with Blanche Bates playing the title role.

Mary Kennedy and Ruth Hawthorne, the authors, did a bit of writing for the play with humor, sparkle with bright lines and offers much pertinent wisdom.
