

KLINGENSMITH PLAT IS REJECTED BY TOWNSHIP BOARD MONDAY

Supervisor Moore Makes Plans For High Class Property In Township

RESTRICTIONS TOO LOW Township Board Seeks Support Of People In Future Development Of Bloomfield

Carrying out the policy of his immediate predecessor, Luther D. Allen, Robert Y. Moore, new supervisor of Bloomfield township, emphatically turned down a request to accept a plat with narrow streets and lots.

One of the chief objections found in the second plat was that the building restrictions were limited to an outlay of $15,000. This, in the opinion of the township board, was nothing but "pinks."

The plat which Mr. Lynch presented Monday night is a revision of one that had been previously turned down by Mr. Allen.

It was practically the first official act of supervisor Moore since he took office January 1, and evidences just how he feels toward the maintenance of high class property in the township.

According to Mr. Moore, the Klingensmith subdivision is in the center of a hilly lake area, and is surrounded by highly restricted properties.

Seymour Adams Is So Popular That He Can't Stay At Jail

Seymour Adams, well known in Birmingham as the "Troy" town, is a most difficult matter to lodge positions of public trust. Witness the coming in which he now finds himself.

January 1, 1925, Mr. Adams began his duties as undersheriff of Oakland county in place to which he was appointed by Sheriff Frank Schram. In order to handle the office properly, Mr. Adams had handled the very same position as supervisor of Troy township, effective January 1. Then arose complications, followed by a visit of the Troy township board.

Nope, Seymour, you can't quit your job as undersheriff, the board declared the Troy officials. "We've been looking up the law on the matter and find that you can continue to act as supervisor along with your duties as undersheriff. Anyway, you'll have to stay with us until the annual election in April, then we'll elect your successor."

That's one reason that Mr. Adams is considered a busy man these days. He's constrained a busy man these days.

THREE BOND ISSUES TOTALING $38,800 TO BE VOTED ON MAR. 9

Commission Plans Elevated Water Tank, Imhoff Tank, New Water Mains

TO AMEND CHARTER

Seek To Change Powers Set Forth In Water Charter; Elect Officials

When Birmingham electors go to the polls at the annual village election to be held next year, March 9, they will decide, besides whom they want for commissioners, whether they want to amend the charter, the proposition of approving bond issues to the amount of $38,800, and three amendments to the village charter. This information was made known in a general discussion at the village commission meeting Monday night.

THREE BOND ISSUES

The remarkable growth of the village, with subsequent increase in demands made upon local public utilities, has made it imperative that bonds be issued to provide for improvements to Birmingham's sewage disposal and water works system in the village of Lakewood.

That end Manager Starr has prepared estimates of the cost of an additional water supply system, and of the enlargement of certain water mains in town, and for the installation of a 200,000 gallon elevated steel storage tank.

The Imhoff type disposal tank is placed at a cost of $26,000, and is proposed to be installed on village property just west of Southfield avenue and the intersection of Lakewood avenue and Lakewood road. The estimated cost of this tank, which has now become over-burdened.

Another elevated steel water storage tank for Birmingham has been a popular topic for many years. Under Manager Starr's plan the proposed 300,000 gallon tank, to cost $29,000, would be located on village property between the Grand Trunk and the Lakewood road. The estimate of $29,000 would cover the cost of the tank and its foundation.

Under a present plan, the Lakewood section of the village is to be supplied with water by the city of Detroit. The village commission, however, is planning to provide for its own water supply. Their refusal to become an extension of the city is the main reason of the commission, sufficient reason for cutting off village water service.

Within the next sixty days, the village will cause residents of the Lakewood section to appear in court to show why they should not be required to discontinue the water service. Mr. Boutwell's petition will be presented to the county board of supervisors at the same time. The hope is that another special election may be held to amend the lands described in the petition.
