NAT. WOMAN'S PARTY CONCLUDES FOUR-DAY CONFERENCE SUNDAY

The second episode of particular interest with many Birmingham people having a part in the depicting of the convention of 1848. Mrs. John Gaffill of Southfield avenue, in modest grey, took the character of Lucretia Mott, who with the help of her husband, drew up the famous Amendment that "men and women shall have equal rights throughout the United States."

Local People Take Part
The third episode was very impressive with about forty children flocking onto the stage and honoring Susan B. Anthony with bouquets of old-fashioned flowers. A martial note with Inez Milliland accompanied by banner bearers was evident in the fourth episode. [Doris Stevens of New York interpreted the part of the great crusader and girls from Baldwin High School, under the direction of Miss Kirkcaldy, physical director, acted as banner bearers. Greek friezes, picturing a funeral procession in purple, Inez Milliland and her friends, in the fifth episode. Pictures of Indian, Colonial, Pioneer and modern life made up the last episode.]

And in concluding scene a vision of the future was shown through a film of the life following the Torch of Freedom.

C. Greene opened Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Tea House where for the Michigan Branch were held. Mrs. Arthur H. Farmer of Detroit will assume the duties of president in the place of Mrs. George H. Houshorne. At the luncheon following, many out of the state delegates spoke. [Doris Stevens, physical director, acted as member of the United States Supreme Bar, told of her experiences in attempting to discover the exact legal status of the woman's physical work in the law libraries Mrs. Matthews found in the situation through-out the United States.]

And there are a lot of human life doing nothing but light and pleasant work, get rid of it. There is no honest way to success without hard work. Don't shun the things in school and college, but liberally do them in order to learn the habit of doing them. There are no snags, no easy ejective courses after you get out of the world.

"A human being is an engine with three cylinders. These three cylinders are the physical, the mental and the moral. You know that you cannot go very far, you cannot climb much of a grade, if one of the cylinders in your car is not hitting."

against the strong, or man against woman. How long are we going to allow this high authority one over another to go on?"

In discussing the question of the Lucretia Mott Amendment, Mrs. Matthews expressed her views on equal rights being written in the U. S. Constitution, rather than attacking the question by state legislation. "I see no reason for fearing a Federal amendment. Germany has one and her homes are still intact. Objections are raised that the Lucretia Mott Amendment is vague. It is the idea of equal protection with its wide interpretation in the various states any more definitely stated that the idea of equal rights?"

A GOOD CROWD PRESENT AT PEDRO AND 500 CARD PARTY
A lively crowd turned out to take part in the Pedro and 500 card party given by the Entertainment Committee of the Oakfield Village Improvement Association, and the fourteen prizes donated by Birmingham merchants were accepted by the winners with glee. The players were evenly divided between Pedro and 500, and also evenly matched as to ability as was attested by close scores. Mrs. Payne, chairman, expressed herself as well pleased with the results of this party and promised bigger and better entertainments for the people of Oakfield Village provided she has their continued support. A dance has been promised for the near future, details of which will be given within a short time.

BIRMINGHAM PASTOR MAKES GOOD ADDRESS ON SUNDAY
Rev. J. E. Weber, of Birmingham, officiated at the services at the Parker Community church Sunday, June 7th, and every member present was particularly delighted with the sermon given by him. In the opinion of the members, there is no one in this vicinity to compare with Mr. Weber in ability to present the truths of the church in a manner both understandable and interesting. B. McNeir, a layman from Detroit, will speak at the services next Sunday, June 14, and for the benefit of those who never heard Mr. McNeir, it is being said they will miss hearing a good and forceful speaker by not turning out. Starting next Sunday, June 14, Sunday School will start promptly at ten o'clock a. m., with Mrs. E. J. Bassett, of Birmingham, as teacher. Up to this time, both Sunday School and church services have been held during the afternoon.

DEATH OF CHARLES MEYERS
Charles Meyers 36 years old, died at his late home on Devon avenue, Meadow Lawn Gardens, Saturday of pneumonia and was buried at Rose-lawn cemetery Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. Mr. Meyers' death came very suddenly after an illness of only nine days, and his death was a great shock to the community. He is survived by a wife, a daughter, Mary, twelve years old, and a son, Wayne, seven years old. Friends extend their sincere sympathy to Mrs. Meyers in her bereavement.
