Many Noted Women Guests Here During Woman's Party Convention

(By Louise Hastings.) Many interesting guests were here visiting in Birmingham and the Hills this week, attending the Mid-Western Conference of the Woman's Party. Some came for only a day and others made their visit more extended. Several well-known women were present, delegates arriving from places as far away as California and Louisiana. One of the most interesting delegates was Madam Heculesa from Roumania, who is known among royal families, her mother being lady in waiting to Queen Marie of Roumania. Miss. Romaniac spoke at the banquet held Friday evening at the Bivouac Hills Club and Sunday addressed the afternoon mass meeting in Detroit. This week she will sail for Geneva, Switzerland, where she is secretary of the International Council of Women.

Wedding March Is Feted Previous To Popular Music For Girls This Month

(By Helen V. Walker.) Strains of "Here comes the bride" have been heard to become the music of the hour and the bride herself is the important figure in all the social circles. The girls who have almost invariably rotated about the brides of the month. Last Wednesday evening at eight o'clock Miss Beryl Wendrop, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wendrop, was married to Emil Gustaf Goy at a pretty ceremony at her parents' home on formerly pastor of the First Lutheran church here, performed the ceremony before an altar created with white flowers and greenery against the fireplace. At either side of the altar were two roses lit in grace to the setting.

Rotarians to Attend CLEVELAND MEETING

Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Stroup, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hascall, Mr. and Mrs. George Averill, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Bowring, and J. Howard will be members of the party of local Rotarians who will spend next week in Cleveland attending the International Rotary Convention. Headquarters for the Birmingham delegates will be the Winton Hotel. The program has been prepared to entertain the delegates from the time of their arrival on Monday until the following Friday. Delegates from thirty different countries will attend the convention and the members of practically every Rotary club in the country.

Booth Reception For DR. MARQUIS' FAMILY

Much attention is also being devoted to the reception held Thursday that is being given by Mr. and Mrs. George Averill at their Bloomfield Hills home. Their guests include Reverend and Mrs. Samuel S. Marquis, who with a hundred people have been asked to meet the honor guests who have very graciously taken their residence at Lone Pine Road in anticipation of Reverend Marquis' work in the new church, which will be erected by Mr. and Mrs. Booth.

They are invaluable to me!

"All my blankets and linens go, of course. But, best of all, they do the children's dozens of frocks and suits—my own washable sport things—Jack's shirts and socks, which they mend, and the precious embroideries and Irish linens Grandmother left me. I'd hardly trust them to a laundress and my own eyes."

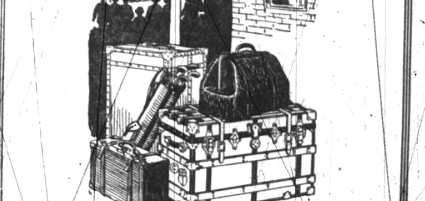

"Things come back beautiful and wrinkleless. They're a perfect joy!"
