WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS OCCUPY ATTENTION OF VILLAGE AND HILLS FOLKS

(By Helen V. Walker.)
Nothing of sufficient size in a social way has appeared since the month of June, and they continue the month and they continue the month and they continue the month...

Reynolds-Buck.
The marriage Wednesday evening of Miss Norma Louise Reynolds and Charles Albert Buck at a pretty home wedding was the culmination of a high school romance in the local high school and was attended by...

Miss Schlaack was very lovely in a French model of white satin fashioning with a light bodice and long skirt. Pearl beads in daisy design formed the only trimming on the dress. It was cut with a high waist and sleeves. A full tuille veil with orange blossoms at either side of the head, fell in straight folds of white roses and baby's breath.

Miss Josephine Durrant, of Pontiac at the University of Wisconsin, attended as maid of honor. She was very attractive in a bright yellow chiffon frock cut along a straight and simple lines with which she wore a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath.

Another wedding took place at a contracted considerable interest was performed last Thursday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Miss Elsie Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Wagner, Pleasant avenue, and Robert M. Wagner were married by Reverend...

This afternoon the wedding of Miss Cora V. Peabody Schlaack, Miss Schlaack is attracting a majority of the social elite of the city. The bride is a lovely young woman, and she is being attended by her mother, Mrs. W. D. Schlaack, and her father, Mr. W. D. Schlaack, who will give her away.
