Packard Beauty Endures

The lasting distinction of Packard Six style is firmly established

Packard cars are not only well designed and well built. Their original factory precision is insured by the new Motor Oil Reficer and the Chassis Pressure Lubricator...

Packard appearance and finish, too, are designed for long life. Packard has set an enduring style. Everyone knows that Packard cars are not depreciated by frequent and needless changes in design.

The buyer of an improved Packard Six can be sure that it will be as true a Packard in 1930 as it is today—in performance, and in comfort, beauty or distinction.
