

Society 'Jack' Moses, Local Rotarian, Relates Incidents Of His Life

Members of the Birmingham Rotary club, at their meeting Monday noon, were given a special hour of personal history when A. L. (Jack) Moses, local Rotarian, of Oakland avenue, briefly outlined his life.

It was Mr. Moses' turn to provide a speaker for the meeting; under the rule of the club, whoever cannot afford to forfeit ten dollars, 'Jack' was rather reluctant discussing A. L. Moses, but when he had concluded his talk was one of the inspirational ever given before the club.

Mr. Moses told of his birthplace, Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, and how at the age of 14, after two years in a home, shipped aboard a vessel at Newport-News, Va., made a trip to the Far East and other ports, and finally landed in Boston, Massachusetts.

Following a visitation to the village commission meeting by members of the Birmingham Rotary club Monday evening, the village commission met later in the evening with a number of members present.

Requests have constantly been made by parents north of Maple avenue because of the danger of crossing traffic caused by both Maple and Chestnut streets.

The most remarkable feature of the entertainment is without a doubt to be found in the unparalleled scenery. Towering castles, wide lawns, dark turrets and ghostly stairways form an extraordinary background for the most suitable back.

There is master horsemanship breathing taking and a gleaming sword fight. Miss Dorothy herself escapes along a high narrow wall in addition to romance the lover's history will be depicted in a dramatic play.

Eight local men have offered their services as scoutmasters for the new scout troop that is being formed here and before next Wednesday evening.
