Trade competition is likely to start another war in twenty years, is the opinion of Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fisher, retired, in an address in New York City.

"If you want to get in on our water and sewer services, you'll have to get into our community," says Fisher. "We are not going to let outside residents get in on our water and sewer services. We are not going to let outside residents get in on our water and sewer services."

"Tom" Lynch came into the Eccentric office last Saturday, seeking the Florida address of "Tom" Johnson. We didn't ask Mr. Lynch what he wanted the address for—but we assume that he's going to ask "Jim" to at least bring back the fish scales.

Two weeks more and we'll attend the crazy cooking at the annual spring election. "Life is getting to be one election after another," laments "Billy" Brown of Bates street.

Everybody ought to be interested in good schools, not to forget good school men. That's one reason why you vote on April 15. "Tom" Johnson, as State School Superintendent, will go a long way toward the enlightenment of boys and girls in Birmingham. All progressive citizens are highly in favor of more schools and more teachers.

In last week's Eccentric a news story spelled "Piggy" Wiggly three different ways. It was not right. We merely mention it in this column since spelling it correctly, and incidentally "keeping up with times."

"France Blocking Way to New Disarmament," is the headline, which comes in French. It is a headline, which comes in French. It is a headline, which comes in French.

Once in a while Harry Nimmo publishes something worthwhile about Michigan and the "Michigan movement." We refer to the autocratic methods used by Governor "Quebec" in furthering his own political designs. Mr. Nimmo's spasmodic outbursts in this direction are the price of a year's subscription to Saturday Night.

"New U. S. Attorney General is Brilliant, Versatile," read a Five Press headline Sunday. "Gosh, how glad to be in order to satisfy the Senate," declared Dave Bell of Oakfield street, this week.

"Cousins Cuts Mellon," No folks, this week appeared in any headline to date. "Where's made it up?" it was suggested from the scrap that Jim and Andy are Magnificent, which is the devil's stage at Washington. It is rather ambiguous in meaning—it might signify that Jim saved a lot of money by the sale of his Ford stock, (as Andy says), or it might be a slam at Mr. Mellon's joyous private ventures.

"For the lovin' sake, here they're going to spend money on a highway in Bagley avenue in Detroit, and Birmingham kicks about a few thousands in its roads," sniggered Bill Spillens of Piety Hill yesterday. "Money made is dead cheap in Detroit—but hardish in gravel."

Now that spring officially arrived last Saturday, you may allow your furnace fire to go out. You may also discard your winter underwear, get out the seed catalogues, or the golf clubs. Our own advice, however, is to wait until summer is a trifle nearer to Birmingham and vicinity—before you make a backward spring.

Wherever you go, on a week day, in and around Birmingham, you may hear the ring of the cowbells of the mer. Little kids' stakes may be seen at almost any turn, signifying that the price of any thing some day and vicinity is growing, and will continue to grow as long as automobiles have any money to invest, put it into LOCAL real estate. It will pay you well in material wealth.
