SPECIAL ASSESSMENT ON WOODWARD AVENUE IS STILL POSSIBLE

State Law Presents Payment Of More Than 75 Per Cent Of Cost

CHANGE RELEASE SOON

Clause Relating To Special Assessment District Stricken Out

By George R. Averill
Fertilized with a new set of releases, the clause referring to the creation of a special assessment district is eliminated, John Moore, director of the village commission to secure 17 feet of frontage on the west side of South Woodward avenue in Birmingham for widening purposes is again pursuing his way. With these new releases, it is believed that Moore will meet with no serious objections in obtaining the desired property.

The new releases were found necessary when the Eccentric, in its issue last week, exposed the possibility of the creation of a special assessment district from Detroit to Pontiac, to assist the State of Michigan in paying the cost of the widening project.

BIRMINGHAM OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 1925

The Mail And Telegraph Service Is Poor Between Lansing And B'ham

That there is actual foundation for the Eccentric's belief that the State of Michigan has already contemplated the creation of a special assessment district to assist in paying for the cost of widening Woodward avenue, between Detroit and Pontiac, may be ascertained with apparent ease from the following:

ROY D. MONTGOMERY
