READ 'EM— Then Smile or Weep

By G. R. A.
Despite the fact that nothing of the kind has been declared regarding the width of Woodward avenue through Birmingham, it is plain to be seen that it will be somewhere between 204 and 100 feet. And that's a concrete fact, too.

Dallas Dort, a Flat Hat School boy, has won the State Oratorical championship under the auspices of the Detroit News. Young Dort is the son of J. Dallas Dort, former automobile manufacturer. Both Dorts are to be congratulated on the outcome of the contest; even though the elder Dort made an automobile that never got to the top of the industry, yet he has raised a son who ranks far ahead of many boys of his age. And a good son is worth a million automobiles.

With proper ignition and plenty of gasoline in the tank, an automobile will run a great distance and render its owner a valuable service, but a good son, with the proper spark and plenty of industry, will kindle a flame that may enlighten the world. The child is its parents' most VALUABLE possession—children have a right to expect more consideration for their needs than automobiles; in some cases, however, the children take a back seat in the family circle, and find front seat in the horse's buggy.

If you ever have a chance to hear Dr. S. Douglas speak, cancel all other engagements and listen to him. He is a sincere, righteous individual who has ideas that are immensely practical. He is one of those chaps to trust and follow!

Numerous adjacent territories are desirous of becoming annexed to Birmingham. An election will be held in the next few weeks to learn how everybody feels on the question. Let's hope everybody feels neighborly when they enter the polls.

Do you know what a real, practical Rotarian is? Rotary was founded by Jesus, for Rotary teaches the application of the golden rule to social and business life. That's the reason the members of the Birmingham Rotary Club are going to help the crippled children of Oakland County; won't you become a Rotarian, too?

von Hindenburg, former German war lord, has been elected President of the German Republic. Such an expression of sentiment on the part of the German people ought to fill the world just how the Fatherland feels about war—for it is plain to see that some time in the future, Germany will take arms against France. It is too bad that Germany has not produced some CIVILIZED PEACE-LOVING minds to lead it away from brutish inclinations.

"Will Bench Dumb Players," says Ty Cobb, leader of the Tigers. From the looks of the season to date, it would appear that Detroit will then be without any representation in the American League.

From the looks of the report made by Judge Frank Murphy, of Detroit, it would appear that all the criminals in the County Jail are not in jail. And they probably won't be, either.

Being President of the United States has its drawbacks. A few days ago Mr. Coolidge showed hands with 1897 high school students. Which proves that all political hand-shaking does not take place before election.

Trouble and beer are both brewing in European countries. In the United States the trouble follows the beer. It is plain to see that the keeping of all in any home tends to prevent the inmates of that home from keeping fit.

Danny Hyman, Detroit gambler, has been sought for several weeks because he is alleged to have tried to bribe high officials of the fourth city's police department. A reported "red" in Toledo. In fact, Danny has been so "ill" that he could not be moved from the Toledo hospital. This question naturally follows: why didn't Danny stay in Detroit and get sick? Certainly Detroit boasts modern hospitals. The answer is plain: Danny wants to be extradited from the Ohio boundary.

Two Brooklyn men traded wives recently and now each thinks the other is a swindler. Perhaps the women think in certain parts of the letters that make up the word "swindler." Such as "swine," for instance.

"Skirts are being worn full," opines Billy Brown of Fuller street. In fact," continues Billy, "if they were worn any fuller they'd bust."

"In the good old days of the week-ly newspaper we used to get our cardwood, vegetables, etc. in payment of subscriptions," relates Bill Fox, of the Rochester Era. "In those happy days we also had a pass on the railroads and interurban lines. I used to take special rides just to use up the mileage on my 'Bill,' joined in Floyd Miller of the Royal Oak Tribune." Let's suppose you were hungry for some bread or beefsteak—I suppose you'd jump on a car and ride to Flint, eh?

Prof. Huxley, of London, declares that some kind of chain have the old habits of courtship, engagement, and marriage. "Yep, that's true," agrees Irvell Bell, of Oakland. "I suppose you'd agree with the professor on that."

Finland is said to have no police system, yet is one of the most law-abiding of nations. "What good would a policeman do in Finland if all the natives could run as fast as you, anyway?" asks George H. Mitchell, of Brown street.

During the past three months Chicago broke all crime records, with 108 killings, 28 of which were classed as justifiable homicides. In the same period 155 died in motor accidents. Which proves that slaughter of animals in Chicago is not confined solely to the stockyards.

Next week Birmingham will be called upon to contribute toward the support of the local Community Herd. It is to be hoped that the call will "goes over the top."

We believe that the Boy Scout movement is one of the finest things ever inaugurated for the uplift of society. Birmingham ought to do all it can to nurture the local Scout troops.

A blind boy, recently in Chicago, recently formed a living chain and rescued Stuart Bowen from possible drowning in the Michigan. When Brown returned to his home, Boy Scouts may form living chains to save a nation.

Have you told any of your Detroit friends what a wonderful place Birmingham and vicinity is to live in? If not, please share the happiness with your friends by inviting them to become residents!

STATE OF MICHIGAN—in the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland, do hereby certify that I, Clerk of said Court, have received and filed for record the Bill of Complaint filed in said cause, and the affidavit of the Plaintiff, from which it is manifestly appears to the Court that the defendant is liable for the damages claimed, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a judgment in the amount of the sum of $100.00, and costs of $10.00.

It is further appearing that after diligent search, inquiry and investigation it cannot be ascertained whether the defendant is dead, or whether he is living, or whether the right title, interest, or estate in the premises is in him, or whether he has personal representatives, or whether the same are known or unknown, or whether he has been appointed by the court, and whether he is a resident of the County of Oakland, Michigan.

East Maple Avenue

Good Quality of Material Used in Plumbing and Heating and the Best of Workmanship to Install, has always been my motto.

Mr. D. B. Wilkinson,
Birmingham, Mich.
Dear Sir:

We do not believe we have ever expressed to you our appreciation of the business which you are giving us for no other reason than because you believe in Chicago Faucets. In the present case you are buying the most expensive faucet on the market. Of course, when you compare this fixture with any other, you will see where the difference in cost comes in and you will be proud to give your customers such a fixture, as compared with the ordinary swing soap faucet which competition has hammered down to the lowest level of brute goods manufacture in order to make a price.

We suggest that you tell your customers that you are giving them Chicago Faucets—faucets which will last as long as the building because of their renewable wearing parts.

We hope that we may be favored with the continuance of your patronage through your jobbers and we want you to feel that you are just as close to us, as far as service or special attention is concerned, as though you were buying from us direct. You may rest assured. The Chicago Faucet Company will never sacrifice quality in order to make a price.

Yours very truly,
THE CHICAGO FAUCET COMPANY,
E. E. Brown, Secretary

Selling Value of Good Lighting

A STOREKEEPER may have all else—goods, a location, salesmanship—but if he has not good lighting it will avail him little.

Experiment under actual everyday business conditions, in many classes of trade, demonstrate that there is a certain standard of lighting below which trade suffers. The standard varies with the kind of goods displayed. It should never be under 10 foot-candles.

Seven out of ten stores are found underlighted—as low as four or five foot-candles. Such stores certainly cannot keep the cash register very busy.

WE WILL INSPECT YOUR EQUIPMENT
MEASURE YOUR LIGHT, AND MAKE SUITABLE RECOMMENDATIONS—WITHOUT CHARGE.
