Mother-Daughter Banquet.

100 mothers and daughters are expected at the Mother and Daughter banquet which is to come on Friday evening, May 29, as part of the program of activities of the Loyal Ladies' Society for this year. The banquet is to be held in the Community chapel and is being arranged for by Mrs. V. R. Ogden, as head of the banquet committee.

Stage "Poor Father," Tonight.

"Poor Father," a three act comedy that has been staged several times in Franklin by residents there, is to be given with the same cast tonight in the Bennaville avetie Congregational church under the auspices of the Loyal Ladies' Society. It was planned to have the performance a week ago but it was delayed because of illness in the cast. The players include a number of prominent people from Franklin and they will be accompanied here by Adams' orchestra which added much to the performances in Franklin.

Present Day Club.

Mrs. M. H. Stevens was elected to the presidency of the Present Day club at the last meeting held at the home of Mrs. Frank Trew on Bird avenue. Mrs. Trew was elected Vice-president; Mrs. W. W. Goosen, recording secretary; Mrs. C. C. Miller, corresponding secretary; Mrs. O. S. Baker, treasurer. Plans are being made for the final meeting of the year which will occur next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Gordon.

Hosts To 500 Club.

Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. F. Roloff of Bennaville avenue, are hosts to members of the Bennaville avetie club at their home. When Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Suterick had the club meet at their home last week Mrs. C. E. Miller and Mrs. W. Kelly were the prize winners.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Dingeman left Sunday for their home in Huron after a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Magabagh on East Bennaville avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Stauffer, of Detroit, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seelman at their home on Bird avenue.

Working on Roll Call. Eco City women have been active during the past week in securing new names on the membership roll of the community. It is a new program of activities of the Loyal Ladies' Society for this year. The work here was not to cease until the end of the week.

May Day Party Abandoned. The May Day party planned for last Saturday did not develop in the manner that was at first arranged by the Present Day Club, the organization sponsoring the party. The committee had the party on the week when the original committee was unable to meet and the party was far more simple than was hoped for. The idea will be abandoned for this year with the expectation of giving a more elaborate one next year.

Loyal Ladies' Society. Wednesday afternoon members of the Loyal Ladies' Society of the Bennaville avetie Congregational church were entertained at the home of Mrs. M. H. Stevens, president of the club, on Smith avenue. Several new members were received in the society and the members dedicated the afternoon to work for the church bazaar next fall. The work is progressing rapidly for the bazaar which is an annual affair. It is decided by the members to issue an invitation to all the women residing in the Bennaville avetie for the purpose of the subscription to become a part of the society.

Next Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. George Cashmore of West Bennaville avenue, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Latow, his family, and Mr. and Mrs. Carmon Roman, all of Detroit.

Little Betty Jean Burke and her mother, Mrs. John Burke, returned yesterday to the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Burke, on Smith avenue, from the Pontiac City hospital where they were for several days, during the removal of their tonsils.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Alward and Shirley Watson of Highland Park.

Henry Ford proposes to take 400 flying ships out of the U. S. Shipping Board, if Ford gets the ships out of the hands of the government. THINK WHAT YOU OWE THE TELEPHONE GIRL

The Telephone girl sits in her chair And listens to voices everywhere, She hears all the gossip, She hears all the news, She knows who is happy, And who has the blues, She knows every girl who is chasing the boys, She knows all our troubles, She knows all our strife, She knows every man who is mean to his wife, She knows every time we are out with the boys, She hears the excuses each fellow employs, She knows every woman who has a dark past, She knows every man who is inclined to bitter foes, If there's a secret 'neath each saucy eye, Or that dim corner 'neath telephone girl, If the Telephone girl should tell all she knows, It would turn half our friends into bitter foes, She would start a small wind that would soon be a gale, And engulf us in trouble and land us in jail, She would let go a story which is going to ruin, She would cause half our wives to go for divorce, She would bring all the churches mixed up in a fight, And turn all our days into sorrow, In fact she would keep all the world in a stir, If she tells a tenth part of the things she knows, How'd it set our head in a row, When you think what you owe the Telephone girl?—EX.
