FORTY-EIGHTH YEAR NO. 6.

Meeting Held in Pontiac Friday to Outline County-wide Canvass

TO BUILD IN PONTIAC

$150,000 is the goal set for the eight-day campaign beginning June 22 among the residents of Oakland County toward the proposed $300,000 County Hospital, according to the unanimous vote of 100 representatives of business and professional men and manufacturers of Oakland County who met last Friday evening at the Pontiac Board of Commerce and accepted the fifty-fifty offer of the Sisters of Mercy.

The latter are to furnish $150,000 providing the county is able to raise a like sum. A site of 200 feet fronting on W. Clemens street, and a depth of 400 feet has been donated by a citizen for the hospital to be operated solely by the Sisters.

Under the direction of a campaign expert from Cleveland, Ohio, plans are being carefully mapped out; committees will be organized; headquarters will be established; and the seventy-five captains will be selected with their assistants. A preliminary canvass taken a few weeks ago indicates that the business men of the county are highly in favor of the project.

A brief history of the movement for a city hospital is given in a booklet, which was introduced by Dr. Christian prior to his introduction of the speakers. C. C. Wilcox spoke from a fraternalist's standpoint, declaring that a hospital ought to be regarded as a municipal asset, and that it should be more efficient. The inadequacy of the present 50-bed City Hospital was pointed out by Dr. L. E. Ferguson, who spoke for the medical men of the county. The Sisters of Mercy are training with the Sisters of St. Elizabeth's hospital, who in a short talk, said that they immediately obtain a Chapter for Birmingham. Dr. J. M. Crowley of Pontiac, City Manager and Mayor Rowell, who briefly addressed the gathering.

Following the completion of the initiative work short talks were made by Chairman J. H. Brown, George R. Hart, S. O. Wiley, Melvin C. Shaw, B. J. Morrow, and George R. Averill.

Rotarian Outlines Life Work in Talk

Following the precedent set by Clarence Vliet, and A. L. (Jack) Averill, speakers at the Rotary luncheon, gave follow-up members of the local Rotary club Monday a short talk on their life. It was Mr. Boutwell's turn to give a speaker for the biennial day parade tomorrow.

Mr. Boutwell was born in Medbury, Massachusetts, said Mr. Boutwell, "lived in New England until ten years ago, when I was attracted to Birmingham because it comes nearer than any other community in the Midwest to the exception of Plymouth, to New England architecture and beauty. My ancestors date back 1500 years to three brothers, bearing the name of Boutwell, who came from France. My mother's side is from Charles Boutwell, who is a district representative for the Cleveland Metal Products Co. that offers Mr. Boutwell's history of this system that Mr. Boutwell, together with several officials of his town, made a personal call on President Roosevelt at the White House, to explain the protective measures that it offered. Mr. Boutwell mentioned several incidents which characterized during the call, typical characteristics of Mr. Roosevelt.
