

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, it is generally conceded that the two banks doing business in the village of Birmingham, Michigan, are the only financial institutions known to the banking fraternity opening their places of business earlier than nine o'clock in the morning, and

WHEREAS, the opening hour of a very large majority of banks in the smaller cities and villages of the state have established the rule of opening and making their regular business hours from nine o'clock in the morning to three o'clock in the afternoon, now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that on and after the first day of November, 1925, The First National Bank of Birmingham, Michigan, and The First State Savings Bank of Birmingham, Michigan, will be open for business at nine o'clock a. m., closed at three o'clock p. m., and on Saturday evening from 6:00 p. m. until 8:00 p. m., upon each business day.

In witness whereof, the said Banks have hereunto set their hands and seals by their regularly authorized officers this twenty-fourth day of September, A. D. 1925.

For 1925 Village Taxes

Up to and including Saturday, October 31, 1925, I will continue to accept Birmingham Village 1925 taxes at the office of the Village Clerk. After October 31, 1925, this year's village tax roll will be turned over to the County Treasurer at Pontiac for collection.

All taxes turned over to the County Treasurer for collection will be charged four per cent penalty plus three-quarters of one per cent for each month or fractional part thereof during their delinquency.

CHARLES PLUMSTEAD,
Treasurer, Village of Birmingham.

STATE OF MICHIGAN—in the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland, In Chancery.

James F. Wooster, Plaintiff vs. George Blakeley and Thomas Hanks, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns. Defendants. No. 12417.

At a session of said court held at the Court House, Pontiac, Oakland County, Michigan, on the 23rd day of September, A. D. 1925.

Present: Hon. Glenn C. Gillespie, Circuit Judge.

Upon reading and filing the bill of complaint in this cause and the affidavits of the plaintiff, James F. Wooster, wherein it is set forth that said plaintiff has made diligent search and inquiry to ascertain the whereabouts of said defendants, George Blakeley and Thomas Hanks, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, and that he has been unable to find any of such persons or their addresses, nor has plaintiff been able after diligent search and inquiry to ascertain the names of the persons described as the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of said defendant, George Blakeley and Thomas Hanks.

Therefore, on motion of said plaintiff, attorneys for plaintiff.

IT IS ORDERED, that said defendants, George Blakeley and Thomas Hanks, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns cause their appearance to be entered herein within three months from the date of this order, and in case of the appearance of them or any of them that they cause an answer to the bill of complaint to be filed and served on the plaintiff, or in default of such appearance to be answered upon the plaintiff's attorneys within fifteen days after service on them or any of them of a copy of the bill of complaint, and that said defendants or their attorneys shall not complain to be taken as confessed by said defendant, George Blakeley and Thomas Hanks, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that within twenty days from date said plaintiff cause a newspaper printed, published and circulating in said county and that said publication be continued for at least one week for six weeks in succession, or that he cause a copy of this order to be personally served upon said defendants at least twenty days before the time above prescribed for their appearance.

GLENN C. GILLESPIE, Circuit Judge.

A true copy:
BURTON P. DAUGHERTY.

RUSSEL THURSTON, Clerk.

The bill of complaint in this cause is filed for the purpose of correcting a misdescription in a deed recorded April 28th, 1914, in records, wherein George Blakeley and Ann, his wife, conveyed property heretofore described by Thomas Hanks, and property being described as:

"Lots 1, 2 and 13 of Blakeley Addition to the Village of Birmingham being a part of the Northeast 1/4 of Section 16, Town 26 North, Range 10 East, Oakland County, Michigan."

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the payment of a certain mortgage made and executed under a certain mortgage made and executed by George T. Strider and Hertha M. Strider, his wife, of the estate of the Township of Southfield, Oakland County, Michigan, mortgagors to Nelson Bell, Ohio, as mortgagor, which said mortgage was so made and executed on the 28th day of July, 1924, and recorded in Liber 218 of the Register of Deeds, Oakland County, Michigan.

And whereas, it is provided in said mortgage, that should default be made in the payment of the principal and interest thereof, or of any part of said principal interest at the time specified for the payment thereof then, in such case it shall and may be lawful for the said mortgagee to sell the premises described in said mortgage to Public Sale and on such sale to make and execute to the purchaser good and sufficient conveyance of the lands and premises described in said mortgage and default having been made in the payment of principal and interest due on said mortgage, and such default having continued for a period of six months and upward and the said mortgagee having determined to exercise their right under said mortgage to foreclose the same and sell the said lands and premises at Public Auction or vendue.

And whereas, the whole amount now claimed to be due and unpaid said mortgage of principal and interest at the date hereof is the sum of SEVEN HUNDRED FORTY-SIX AND FIVE ONE-HUNDREDTHS ($746.48) Dollars and no aliquot part thereof (which said sum includes principal and interest) has been received by the mortgagee since the date of the last payment thereon, NOW THEREFORE, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that on Monday, the 21st day of December, 1925, at one o'clock in the afternoon, the said lands and premises described in said mortgage will be sold at Public Auction to the highest bidder, at the eastern entrance to the Court House, in the City of Pontiac, Oakland County, Michigan, to satisfy the amount due on said mortgage and costs and expenses of foreclosure.

The lands and premises to be sold are described in said mortgage as follows: A certain Parcel of land situated in the Township of St. Clair, Michigan, described as Lot number Thirty (30) of Miami Woods Subdivision of the south eleven (11) acres of the east one-half (1/2) of the southeast quarter (SW 1/4) of section thirty-one (31), according to the recorded plat thereof, Dated September 15, 1923.
