Beautiful Symphony Orchestra As that in Detroit, said Mrs. ... This splendid orchestra is under the direction of the famous Gustav ... The 16 programs scheduled for the coming season ...

'BALDWIN BOYS AND GIRLS POSSESS HIGH IDEALS,' HART Mr. Hart took for his subject, 'My ... Calls For High Ideals ... Let me say at the outset that I deem it a great privilege to work with the finest property that our community has, namely: our boys and girls,' said Mr. Hart.

Youth Is Sophisticated Mr. Hart told the Exchanges that 90 per cent of the 570 pupils in the Baldwin possess high ideals; that they are earnestly striving to fit themselves for the task of adult life. 'It has been said that the local boys and girls are more sophisticated than the previous generation to an amount ...

Demand Fair Play 'I repeat that there is a fine moral in the Baldwin High School,' continued Mr. Hart. 'Let me emphasize, also, that our youth demands above all things else, absolute fair play. Boys and girls are perfectly willing to be taught the right things; if you find them doing a wrong thing, they may at first reject your plan to change them, ...

Parents Should Help 'I wish that all parents would take a bit more time in influencing their children, and not leave it entirely to the school system to work out the destiny of children. Parents certainly realize that their children are the finest possession they own; they ought to take more personal interest in the mental development of their children ...

Community Cooperation 'The entire community must cooperate and coordinate their efforts in order to bring out the best in our boys and girls,' concluded Mr. Hart. 'Parents and teachers must win the confidence of the students; people with no children, as well as the young men and women of our community, must realize that every act witnessed by the boys and girls who live with and among them ...

YOUR CHILDREN WHO ARE AWAY FROM HOME A large number of young people have gone from their home in Birmingham to college or work in other parts of the country. One of the things incidental to their departure that should not be overlooked is a regular mailing of the home paper to them ...

CARD OF THANKS The family of the late Alexander Groves wish to thank their many friends and relatives for their kindness, sympathy and beautiful floral offerings shown them during their sad bereavement, especially thankful to the Reverend David H. Curry, Adv. This week Mrs. F. S. Ross of Willett street is visiting her brother in Grand Rapids.
