Gave House Party

Mrs. J. B. Howarth had a house party at her home on Pierce street over last weekend. The guests were Mrs. E. W. Ogilvy and her son, Stewart, of Ottawa, Canada, and Winslow Howarth of Detroit. On Labor Day Mrs. Howarth entertained a few Birmingham friends at dinner.

Prepared For Rain

Through the courtesy of Christopher Brien the outdoor booths of the St. James' Fair will be moved, in case of rain, into the store to be occupied by the Brien Shoe Shop in the new Blakeslee Building on West Maple avenue. The fair at Edson Mowers of Brown street and the other boys from Mount Williams, the Episcopal camp conducted by Rev. McCurdy.

Visited In Mt. Clair

Miss Eleanor Millington, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Millington of Colberry Park, in Bloomfield Hills, returned Sunday to her home from Mount Clair, N. J., where she has been sojourning for a fortnight. During her stay she has been the guest of the Horace A. Browns with whom she returned by motor after they had spent some time visiting in the Hills. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will be remembered as formerly residing on Orchard Lake until several years ago when Mr. Brown accepted the vice presidency of the Hyatt Roller Bearing Company in Mount Clair.

Gives Tea For Guest

At a tea today, at her home on Southfield road, Mrs. A. C. Utter will introduce her guest Mrs. E. S. Ives, of Chicago, who is staying with the Utters for a fortnight. Mrs. Utter's guests today will include a small circle of Birmingham and Hills women.

MISS SMITH'S DANCING CLASS TO RE-OPEN OCT. 2

Recent announcement by Miss Evelyn Livingston Smith that her dancing classes would re-open on October 2 has met with a general response in the Hills and Birmingham, and Miss Smith is now anticipating holding her classes on two days each week instead of one, as she had planned. One of the innovations in the ball room dancing conducted for the boys and girls of school age and it is meeting with unusual enthusiasm.

Not alone is Miss Smith recognized as an instructress but also as a talented and charming dancer, having studied with Ivan Tarasoff, Luigi Albertieri, Denisawn and several other of equal note. She will have as her secretary and accompanist Miss Helen Martin of Detroit, who is an associate of the London, England, College of Music, and a pupil of Francis A. Mayhew of Detroit.

English Visitor
William Mallender, here from Wales, England, will remain for the rest of the summer with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mallender on Chesterfield road. Fred Mallender is expected to return from Ford Hospital next week where he has been for three weeks following a serious operation.

Home From Vacation
Upon their return from Oacoda Lake late last week, where they have been occupying their summer home for several months, Mrs. J. E. Stroup and her two sons, Carl and Bob Hilly, left for Ohio where they were the guests of Drs. H. S. Hilly and A. S. Hilly and were joined over Labor Day by Mr. Stroup who motored down to return with them. They have returned this week to their home on Elm street and the boys will return to school.

Returns From Elk Rapids
Mrs. Julian Case has returned to her home in the village this week after an extended visit in the north of the state at Elk Rapids.

At Square Lake Club
On Labor Day, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Carter entertained a small group at the Square Lake Country Club. The distinguished party comprised Mrs. Lima, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Robarge and their daughter, Margaret, and Mrs. Pauline Lewis of Detroit, and Roderich Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Anderson of Brown street. Last Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Carter had as her day's guests in her home on Adams Road, Mrs. George Sebbitt, Mrs. Walter Cummings and Mrs. Albert Hauxwell of Orion.

From Atlantic City
After spending two weeks in Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. George Steedman and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cartwright have returned to Birmingham, arriving on the village Monday evening.

At Bloomfield Hills Club
On Saturday evening Bruce Chalmers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Chalmers, entertained a group of friends at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Miss Griffin Returning
Miss Mary Griffin will return to the village tomorrow after two weeks of rest at her apartments in Cambridge, Massachusetts. About September 15 she will take up her work as social director at The Community House.

Moved to Ann Arbor
Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. M. moved from their residence on Ridgedale avenue this week to make their future home in Ann Arbor with their children, Helen, Betty and Shirley. Miss Helen will enter the University of Michigan this fall. The future home will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swineheart. Mr. Swineheart is on the staff of The Detroit News.

Guests At Shumard's
Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilson of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. E. Fleischer of Lansing spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Shumard.

Motored To Marine City
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Campbell and daughters, Helen and Ruth, of 10th avenue, with some friends from Birmingham, motored to Marine City last Saturday to remain over Labor Day with relatives.

Birthday Party
Mrs. Charles Mason of Davis avenue entertained six children last Friday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mabel's fifth birthday. Games were followed by refreshments served at a table decorated in red and yellow; this same color scheme being used throughout the rooms. The guests included, besides the hostess, Persis Carter, Ruth Louise Campbell, Mary Doty, Doris Meyers, and Betty Jean Burke.

Present Day Club
The Present Day Club will hold the first meeting of the year next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. H. Campbell on 10th avenue. All members are requested to answer roll call with their vacation experiences.

Motored New York State
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dalley of Floyd street have just returned with their three children from a motor trip through northern New York and the East, stopping at Niagara Falls, Montreal and other interesting points. On their three week tour they visited Mrs. Dalley's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. Collins at Montreal. They were accompanied on their return trip by Mrs. Dalley's sister, Miss Mae Collins, who will visit for a short time in the village. The party arrived in Birmingham Monday evening.

BONSTELLE DANCING CLASS STARTS SEPT. 14

Some change has been made in the class days of the Bonstelle Dancing school that will open in the Community House with a group of local pupils next week. It was announced that the school would open on September 17 but it will actually begin next Monday afternoon, September 14. This change has been made in response to requests from parents of the registered pupils who suggested Monday as more convenient day than Thursday. Registrations have been received for several weeks on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and the class is about made up to begin work.

Under the personal supervision of Miss Jessie Bonstelle, the dancing school will be in charge of Miss Vera Cassan, for eight years a member of Anna Pavlova's company and the only authorized member to teach the Pavlova method.
