Finis.
The time has come for me to bid you good-bye. I'll soon be on my "larger fields" of usefulness. The happenings along these streets are going to be a little different. To write, Street, Fair, Water Erection, Wild West Show and many other things. I'd like to talk with you about; now other hands and other heads take up the task. It's half-past Time for me to go.

For all mistakes that I have made I hope that you'll forgive me. Sometimes it's been the miss-spelling of just a word or maybe the confusing of a date. All human beings make mistakes; and anyway, I never claimed to be an angel. I guess you'll All forgive me.

You don't know how I'll miss each one of you and all these old familiar haunts. The dimness of police office, the familiarity of faces around about the Community House, at the Baldwin Public Library the squeaking floors and creaking chairs and many books in their customary places. The gleaming white of table top at Hammett's, the gatherings in the blue post office. I'll miss it all. Each of you both great and small have had your place from the Newby to carbage man. (I'll be some time before I'll find one who can occupy the same amount of space as the last mentioned gentleman.) You who've claimed to enjoy this column and who have read into the end. I thank you. Now I must go. Shake paw and bid farewell. If we don't meet on earth again I'll miss you. I guess you'll I'm not an angel As I've said before.

THE VERSATILITY OF CHRIST
Christ challenges the attention of the world by His versatility. He meets the needs of all classes and conditions of men. If he were to call the roll of the world's workers this morning and ask them "What think ye of Christ?" there answer would be something like this:
To the architect He is the Chief constructor.
To the astronomer He is the Sun of Righteousness.
To the baker He is the Living Bread.
To the banker He is the Hidden Treasure.
To the biologist He is the Life.
To the builder He is the Sure Foundation.

To the doctor He is the Great Physician.
To the educator He is the Great Teacher.
To the engineer He is the New and Living Way.
To the farmer He is the "Sower and Lord of the Harvest."
To the forest He is the Rose of Sharon and the Lily of the Valley.
To the geologist He is the Rock of Ages (and it is more important the age of rocks).
To the horticulturist He is the True Vine.
To the judge He is the Righteous One.
To the juror He is the Faithful and True Witness.
To the lawyer He is the Counselor, the Lawgiver, the Advocate.

To the newspaper man He is the Good Tidings Preacher.
To the oculist He is the Light of Eyes.
To the preacher He is the Word of God.
To the sculptor He is the Living Stone.
To the servant He is the Good Master.
To the student He is the Incarnate Truth.
To the toiler He is the Giver of Rest.

To the singer He is the Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world.
To the Christian He is the Son of the Living God, the Saviour, the Redeemer and Lord.
