Present Day Club Planning
Good Start For Year's Work
Anxious to start their activities again for the winter, as early as possible to prepare an interesting program of meetings, the Present Day club opened last Tuesday evening with a meeting at the home of Mrs. C. H. Campbell on Smith avenue. A tentative program was presented for the coming year by a committee appointed for that purpose. Mrs. M. H. Stevens, president of the club, gave the members new inspiration and encouragement with a discussion of the aims and ambitions of the club.

Mrs. Campbell, assisted by the members of the club, served a light buffet supper and the guests were entertained with a short program. It was arranged that the next meeting shall be held Tuesday afternoon and Mrs. W. R. Ogden has opened her home on Smith avenue to the members for that day. This will be a particularly attractive meeting as a Detroit speaker has been secured to discuss club organization. Also special music has been arranged for that day, and a tea will follow.

Loyal Ladies Society
Autumn has brought new life and effort to the church societies as well as other branches of the Loyal Ladies Society of the Benaville Avenue Congregational Church. The members of the society are busy with the church for the fall program of work. It is expected that at this time many of the members who have been away through the winter will register for the winter's work.

Gave Dinner Party
Mrs. M. H. Stevens entertained with a dinner party at her home on Smith avenue last Saturday evening for Miss Fern Joseph and Dalton Williams, who were visiting her from Detroit.

Visiting in Chicago
Accompanied by her children, Mrs. E. Shumard of Bird avenue left last Tuesday for Chicago, where they will make an extended visit with Mrs. Shumard's parents.

Move To New Home
Following a year's residence on third avenue, Mrs. L. E. Winslow have moved to their new home on Berkshire avenue in Indian Village.

Wedding Ceremony
Everett L. A. Schuesser of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Lincoln avenue performed the marriage ceremony last week that united Miss Lillian Schoring and Albert Bradwell, both of Albany, N. Y. The couple had been spending sometime with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph in the city, and immediately after the ceremony for Albany they were attended to by service by Mr. and Mrs. Burns. The service was held at the parsonage on Henrietta street, Birmingham.

Evening Bridge Party
At their home on East Ruffner avenue, Mrs. Robert L. Williams were hosts at an evening bridge party last Friday evening. Among their guests were Mrs. Mack Rogers, Miss W. Bussy, Mrs. Lillian Davies, E. A. Davenport of Pontiac and C. E. Jordan of Detroit.

Over the weekend there were numerous visitors on the subdivision. Among those who entertained were Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Stevens of Smith avenue who had as their guest Mrs. H. D. Meyer of Oxford, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bowers of Smith avenue, also had weekend guests including Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright of Redford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey MacLellan of Bird avenue and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Campbell of Smith avenue, entertained a group of friends by taking them to Franklin where they saw the Sunday lake boat parade.

On a short vacation, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Baker of Smith avenue took the family to Walled Lake, last week and where they spent several days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baker.

Mrs. C. MacDonald was here from Milwaukee, Wis. last week and was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. S. Baker at their home on Smith avenue.

Following a visit here, Mr. and Mrs. C. Navin left last week for their home in Sault Ste. Marie. During their stay here they had been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Beebe, on Clawson road.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Watson of Bird avenue are receiving congratulatory notes on the birth of a daughter, on September 11.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hamilton of Davis avenue, were in town where they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grant on Fairview avenue.

Mrs. George W. Hartach, who is here from Templeville, Ind., has been dividing her time between a niece, Mrs. R. J. Taylor in Birmingham, and her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hartach of Pontiac, Mr. and Mrs. G. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Louise Campbell are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Borrell of Benaville avenue this week. They are motoring from Sault Ste. Marie to Oakland, Cal., and stopped enroute.

Wattles Corners
The Parent-Teacher Association of the Smith school, Troy, will hold its first meeting this year, September 25, at 2:30 p. m. in the school house. All those who are interested in the Smith school are asked to be present.

A large flag, a 40-foot flag-pole, a three-board swing, and a "giant stride" are new and welcome additions to the school grounds.

School began in the Smith school last September 14, and about 100 pupils, Mrs. Miriam Jones of Royal Oak will again be in charge, and Miss Marjorie Brannon also of Royal Oak will take over the primary grades.

Those who graduated from the eighth grade last spring are now attending school in Royal Oak, with the exception of Ruth Neal who has entered the Highland Park High School.

Mrs. Julia Frazer, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. B. Wattles, has returned to her home in Battle Creek.
