

Dec. 17 7 More Days to Christmas

BUY CHRISTMAS SEALS

They make possible the fight against tuberculosis.

FOOTBALL TEAM GIVEN LETTERS

Senior assembly was held last Friday afternoon in the senior session room. The program was in charge of the Junior class and proved to be very interesting.

The scripture was read by Alta Purks and was followed by two piano solos by Mildred Green which everyone enjoyed very much. Alfred LaBelle, bookkeeper, gave the students his impressions of Birmingham which was favorable and explained what his aim was in establishing a bookstore in the village. Dorothy Peck gave two humorous readings. Following the readings, Clarence McMillen sang two baritone solos including a selection from the "Vagabond King."

The program was concluded with the awarding of the football letters to the varsity men who received great applause from the students.

Awaits Sentence On Serious Charge

James Gibson, of Milton, who, Hazel Park, will probably be sentenced this week by Judge Frank L. Govett, in the Oakland County Circuit court, on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of minors.

He was arrested last Thursday by Corporal W. G. Needham, of the Michigan State Police, arrested by Deputy Sheriff Barney Doyle and Walter Alaback.

He appeared before Judge Govett in circuit court Friday morning, where he again pleaded guilty.

Exchangites to Give Christmas Party

Next Wednesday evening members of the Birmingham Exchange club, with their wives, will hold a chicken dinner and leather party in the local Knights of Pythian Hall. The affair, which is under the direction of Kenneth Bingham, chairman of the entertainment committee of the club, will begin at 7 p. m.

The Exchangites will be hosts Tuesday noon to their wives at the Lone Pine Tea House at the regular noon luncheon. A suitable program has been arranged for the occasion.

RANDOM DOINGS

Of a Random World

Turkey's first airplane factory has been opened by the government in the interior of Anatolia.

Argentina is buying fewer automobiles than last year, but is spending more money for agricultural implements than ever before.

According to the National Electric Light Association, 60 per cent of industry in the United States is now electrified.

Printed music published in the United States last year exceeded $15,000,000 in value.

The thinnest and toughest leather obtainable is made from the skins of frogs.

One pair of elephant's tusks will supply enough ivory for 30 sets of piano keys.

France now has the world's fastest train, "The Golden Arrow."

Lord Merrivale, presiding in the divorce court in London, granted 115 decrees in a single day.

Nothing appears to be too silly to get a divorce in some metropolitan newspapers. One prints an interview with Winifred Hudnut, once the wife of Valentino, who claims to have had spiritual communication with the dead screen star. According to Winifred, Rudolph will not appear in movies on the astral plane, but hopes to make a hit on the legitimate stage.

CHIROPRACTIC

Decision

A CHARACTERISTIC of every successful executive is the power of decision. Subordinates may work out the details and thousands carry on a policy decided by him; the final judgment comes from the higher up. The power of decision must rest on responsible shoulders. Beneath them you will invariably find an erect BACK-BONE and nerve free to function at greatest capacity. Health is an essential. If you have ailments, investigate my health method.
