Hudson
 Super-Six
 Never Before So Fine and Never at Such a Price
 At today's prices Hudson changes the whole scale of motor values.
 It is the best built Hudson in history, with more brilliant performance and richly appointed bodies in new colors, new lines, new beauty. It reaches new heights of supremacy in motor values—the greatest achievement in Hudson's long known policy of giving most for the money.
 Of course you hear comment everywhere on Hudson's greatly improved gasoline mileage.
 In every way today's Hudson is smoother and more economical to operate. Oil is ventilated to prevent thinning. The motor is protected from dust and dirt—it cannot enter through oil, gasoline or air. Adjustments to take up wear easily, means always a snug, quiet car. It is in such details and its price advantage that Hudson is outstanding—the best built, best value Hudson in history.

From time to time extremely old persons are quoted regarding the means whereby they attained long life. Some attribute longevity to use of tobacco or whisky; others to abstinence from them; some are vegetarians, others eat lots of meat; and so on. . . . An old darky once gave an explanation which is perhaps as enlightening as any. He attributed his great age to the fact that he "was, born so far back."

Dozens of mediums claim to have received spirit messages from the late Harry Houdani. But the great magician, who denounced spiritism during his life, had anticipated such charity and had agreed with his wife upon certain test words to be included in his messages in case he happened to be able to communicate with earth after death. None of these test words were received by the mediums, she says.

Hirsch Neuman secured annulment of his marriage in London, through testifying that he did not know that a wedding ceremony was being performed.

David Schretzitz, Chicago contractor, wagered $10,000 with his workmen that they could not beat a rival construction crew on a skyscraper across the street, and the workmen won, as he wanted them to.

Theaters

ORPHEUM
 The Galva Players, headed by Miss Irene Galva, are drawing capacity crowds to the Orpheum Theater in Pontiac. The company is there for a season's engagement and is said to have as good a company as has ever been seen in this locality.
 Miss Galva is talented, pretty and only 19 years old, but has played 15 of those years on the stage. She is supported by her famous uncle, the original Johnny Galva, who is known from coast to coast as one of the best of comedians. Others in the cast are Dudley Miller, leading man who has been appearing in Chicago productions, Stephen Clark, Margaret Pitt, Margaret Selick, Dorothy Pembroke, A. H. McAdam, Wray Moffmar and others equally promising.

This week the company is presenting the famous Ilen Mullally Comedy and next week starting Dec. 19th they will play the much discussed, highly praised comedy drama "It's a Boy" which is said to be about the funniest show ever written and still be consistent and thoroughly natural.

BALDWIN
 Renee Adoree, whose portrayal in "The Big Parade" has been acclaimed one of the outstanding performances of the year, began her screen career, oddly enough, as an Irish girl. Tom Moore's sister in one of his pictures, the little French mademoiselle successfully interpreted a daughter of Erin and thus embarked on a film career that has given her a wide range of parts.
 Miss Adoree has a preference for roles in which she can give full rein to a vivid personality. Unlike other players she doesn't read or joke between scenes.
 While appearing opposite Thomas Meighan in Paramount's "Tin Gods," which comes to the Baldwin on Monday, Dec. 20, 3 days, Miss Adoree would retire to her portable dressing room. There she concentrated on the character she portrayed—a Latin-American singer in a border cafe. Or else, she talked to Meighan, Director Allan Dwan, Aileen Fringle and William Powell about the scenes that followed.

To the role of "Carita" in "Tin Gods," Miss Adoree brings all the charm and warmth of a volatile personality. Her part in the screen version of William Anthony McGuire's stage play is that of the scheming, unscrupulous, and unscrupulous girl who by her love and tender care regenerates Thomas Meighan, whom his ambitious, indifferent wife, Aileen Fringle, had debauched and nearly succeeded in destroying.

Miss Adoree professes no preferences as to roles she is called to portray, stipulating only that they be colorful and like-like.

Dozens of mediums claim to have received spirit messages from the late Harry Houdani. But the great magician, who denounced spiritism during his life, had anticipated such charity and had agreed with his wife upon certain test words to be included in his messages in case he happened to be able to communicate with earth after death. None of these test words were received by the mediums, she says.
