To Tell of Work to Decrease Child Mortality Rate in South

An event of considerable interest will be the talk by Mrs. Mary Breckinridge, director of the Kentucky Committee for Mothers and Babies, Inc., at 8 p. m. Tuesday at "Thornhill," the new home of the Henry S. Booths, on Cranbrook road.

Mrs. Breckinridge will tell about the work in the state of Kentucky of this committee, which is of recent origin. It is the real fine old American stock we're trying to preserve particularly. Mrs. Breckinridge says she deplores the high rate of mortality among babies, and says that the committee hopes by its work to decrease it.

MUSICALE ADOPTS NEW CONSTITUTION

Plans For Coming Year And Limits Active Membership To

At a special business meeting of the Thursday Musical of Birmingham in the Community House Wednesday morning, the constitution for the coming year was formally adopted after a few small changes were made in the draft presented by Mrs. Charles J. Shain, chairman of the constitution committee.

According to the constitution, the subject of the club is "to instruct the members, to present before the public recitals and programs and to stimulate interest in music in Birmingham and vicinity." The constitution is limited to the present body of active and 15 non-active members.

Owing to a request of the program committee of which Mrs. Leslie Lambert is chairman, that the financial resources of the club be determined each year as early as possible, the time limit for the payment of dues was set at December 1st of each year.

Mr. L. B. My was house host for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. William Uplegar, president of the club, read all members in the club, and he hopes that they would vote "no" to defeat the recall petition.
