A CHRISTMAS PRAYER Lord, at this blessed Christmas tide, May love in every heart abide, And may no bitterness or ill, Or unkind thoughts, but just good will, Be in our hearts and peace be ours, And thoughts as pure as fairest flowers, And Father, help us to forget, If any trace has lingered yet, Of wrong done by another's hand, That when on Christmas morn we stand, To praise Thee, and then joyfully kneel, Before Thy table, we may feel, Free from all trace of sin and wrong, Our hearts be filled with joy and song, And may all little children know, That Christ was born for them below, And that He lives for them above, May every heart be filled with love, And this our prayer on Christmas Day— Oh Father, keep us thus always.—Beatrice McDonald

SCHOOL BOARD ADVISES NEW TEACHER HERE

In anticipation of the increase of 100 or more students expected by the school board in the Baldwin High School next semester, Clarence V. Wood, superintendent of schools, was authorized to hire a new teacher for the chemistry department at the building last night... Although the increase is expected to be almost evenly divided between the senior high school and the junior high school, Mr. Vliet said he would hire a new instructor for the junior high school, transferring one of the teachers now in that school to the senior high school.

AUTO FIRE
