

SOCIETY

Birmingham Society Prepares To Make Christmas Memorable

All Birmingham is either to be closing its doors in farewell for Christmas Day or else opening them to the joy of the season. The village which is not going over the shadow of statistics is preparing to make Christmas a day when everybody just must have his party. Not only family, but the city is within traveling distance, either by motor car or by train.

One of the largest affairs will be the Christmas supper Saturday evening at the George G. Booth club, Cranbrook, where the various branches of the Booth family will gather together.

Mr. and Mrs. William Watson of Fortran road will spend Christmas Day with Mrs. Weston's group. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Welling of Riverdale avenue will give Mrs. Weyling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Maxwell, of Detroit with them for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ranney and their daughter Beth Louise of Oakland avenue, are leaving Saturday for Cleveland, O., where they will spend the holidays with Mrs. Ranney's sister, Mrs. William H. Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hasell, of North Woodward avenue, will be hosts at Christmas dinner to Mrs. Hasell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hobbelt, who recently moved from Birmingham to Detroit. Mrs. Hasell's mother, Mrs. M. and Mrs. Clinton Sears, of Madison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pense, of Buckingham road, will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tyson dinner on Christmas.

Mr. Robert Siau, of Dorchester will have his mother, Mrs. John Siau, of Detroit, with him for Christmas. Mrs. Siau is leaving immediately after Christmas for several weeks.

Mrs. Siano will entertain her Christmas party at her home on Friday evening prior to the New Year's Eve party to be given by Dr. and Mrs. D. Hutchinson, of Lake Park drive, which they will all attend.

The Harold Furlongs, of Yorkville road, will have their daughter, Neta Virginia, and Mrs. Furlong's mother, Mrs. Bertha Bennett, of Hagerstown, Md., for the holidays. Neta Virginia is attending school in Hagerstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Good, of Buckingham road, will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Good's brother, Charles Hills Good, of Chicago, on Christmas Day, and for a few days afterwards.

Mr. and Mrs. William Watson of Fortran road will spend Christmas Day with Mrs. Weston's group.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Welling of Riverdale avenue will give Mrs. Weyling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Maxwell, of Detroit with them for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ranney and their daughter Beth Louise of Oakland avenue, are leaving Saturday for Cleveland, O., where they will spend the holidays with Mrs. Ranney's sister, Mrs. William H. Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hasell, of North Woodward avenue, will be hosts at Christmas dinner to Mrs. Hasell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hobbelt, who recently moved from Birmingham to Detroit.

LARGE AUDIENCE AT PLAYERS' THEATRE

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

Some Royal Comedy
Ben Hock and his new play, "The Hero of Santa Maria," could they have been at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, would have enjoyed immortality by the millions of people who are so fond of the long ago, make the scene an altogether poetic and dramatic one.

TRIBUTE PAID TO THREE MEN

Monday's program at the Birmingham Rotary club consisted of the payment of tributes to three men who have passed away during the past year.

Mr. Howarth was presented with a solid gold watch containing a diamond, by Rotarian Charles J. Shain, as a mark of their appreciation of his Howarth's contribution to its success.

Harold Klein, chairman of the special program committee, made a charge of that part of the program devoted to Walter Connelly, whose marriage occurs Jan. 15.

James W. Parry made a few sympathetic remarks to Mr. Connelly who was covering for the club, and the latter, when asked to respond, merely replied, "I'm no good as a speaker; you see what the old speech I ever made has brought me."

Rev. F. J. Logie, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, was present as the guest of Elmer B. Howarth, read an address on the December issue of the Rotary, written by Private Peat, a member of the club, and the part Christmas plays in it.

Waitresses at the Lone Pine Tea House presented the club with a check for $100.00, the amount of the American flag as a Christmas present. The club, in return, presented the ladies with a substantial check.

Mothers Guests at Christmas Breakfast
Austin Parks and Warren Bryn, of the streets in leaving this week for the South, where they will spend the remainder of the winter. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Bryn, who will spend the latter part of the winter in the South.

Mrs. Richard Kalfus and her two children, Virginia and Nina, of Bloomfield street, is leaving a few days after Christmas for Detroit, where she will spend about a month with relatives.

Clinton Sears, of Madison avenue, returned Monday from Cincinnati, O., where he spent the week-end.

Mrs. Charlotte Fox, of Riverdale and Kensington drives, was home to her club at luncheon followed by bridge Friday.

Mrs. J. A. Gilray, of Dorchester street, is having a few guests to tea Sunday evening at her home on Dorchester road.

Mrs. W. S. Gilbreath, Jr., is entertaining a few guests at luncheon Sunday at her home on Puritan road.

Mrs. Cyrenus Adellbert Newcomb III, of Bloomfield court, is entertaining at luncheon Thursday at the D. A. C. in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Vay, who are visiting in Detroit. The Vay family are former Detroiters, and are still active in Birmingham social circles. They are remaining in Detroit only a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Buck of Puritan Road and son Elton Buck will spend Christmas at the home of Mrs. Iva Stoenburg at New Albany, Ind. Stratton Buck, who is a student at the University of Michigan, France, will spend Christmas in Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hartsuch, of Ruffner street, are receiving congratulatory cards on the birth of a son, Droyer Paul, last Wednesday. Mrs. Hartsuch was formerly a teacher in the High School last year. Mr. Hartsuch is an instructor in chemistry in the Hazel Park School.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Shain, of 17th street, are entertaining a few guests at dinner Friday evening preceding the plays at the Village Players' Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore McCutcheon and their three children have taken up their residence on Harmon avenue again, after having been in Bellaire for some time. Mr. McCutcheon is in the real estate business. He and his family will remain in Birmingham for the winter.

Mrs. C. A. Wilson, of Willets street, entertained the classes which meet every Monday evening at the Community House at a party last night at the Home Club.

STUDENTS CONTINUE HOMEWARD TREK

Many From Far-off Schools Return to Village For Holidays
Students are still coming home for the Christmas holidays. The last few days have seen the return of many students from far-off schools to the village for their holidays.

Harlow Davock is home from school at Lake St. George to spend a fortnight with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Davock of Dewey street.

Jack Walling, of the streets, and Mrs. John W. Walling, of Oak street, has returned from the University of Michigan.

Ermas Mann has returned from Dartmouth to be with his parents, the Roland Manns of Greenwood.

Waitresses at the Lone Pine Tea House presented the club with a check for $100.00, the amount of the American flag as a Christmas present. The club, in return, presented the ladies with a substantial check.

Mothers Guests at Christmas Breakfast
Austin Parks and Warren Bryn, of the streets in leaving this week for the South, where they will spend the remainder of the winter. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Bryn, who will spend the latter part of the winter in the South.

Mrs. Richard Kalfus and her two children, Virginia and Nina, of Bloomfield street, is leaving a few days after Christmas for Detroit, where she will spend about a month with relatives.

Clinton Sears, of Madison avenue, returned Monday from Cincinnati, O., where he spent the week-end.

Mrs. Charlotte Fox, of Riverdale and Kensington drives, was home to her club at luncheon followed by bridge Friday.

Mrs. J. A. Gilray, of Dorchester street, is having a few guests to tea Sunday evening at her home on Dorchester road.

Mrs. W. S. Gilbreath, Jr., is entertaining a few guests at luncheon Sunday at her home on Puritan road.

Mrs. Cyrenus Adellbert Newcomb III, of Bloomfield court, is entertaining at luncheon Thursday at the D. A. C. in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Vay, who are visiting in Detroit. The Vay family are former Detroiters, and are still active in Birmingham social circles. They are remaining in Detroit only a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Buck of Puritan Road and son Elton Buck will spend Christmas at the home of Mrs. Iva Stoenburg at New Albany, Ind. Stratton Buck, who is a student at the University of Michigan, France, will spend Christmas in Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hartsuch, of Ruffner street, are receiving congratulatory cards on the birth of a son, Droyer Paul, last Wednesday. Mrs. Hartsuch was formerly a teacher in the High School last year. Mr. Hartsuch is an instructor in chemistry in the Hazel Park School.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Shain, of 17th street, are entertaining a few guests at dinner Friday evening preceding the plays at the Village Players' Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore McCutcheon and their three children have taken up their residence on Harmon avenue again, after having been in Bellaire for some time. Mr. McCutcheon is in the real estate business. He and his family will remain in Birmingham for the winter.

Mrs. C. A. Wilson, of Willets street, entertained the classes which meet every Monday evening at the Community House at a party last night at the Home Club.

Mrs. C. A. Wilson, of Willets street, entertained the classes which meet every Monday evening at the Community House at a party last night at the Home Club.

MISS MARION THAM MAKES HER DEBUT

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

Miss Marion Tham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tham, of the streets, made her debut at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, in the role of the heroine in the play "The Hero of Santa Maria."

SOCIAL IS GIVEN AFTER

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Nearly 200 members and guests attended the social given at the Little Playhouse Friday evening, following the presentation of three one-act plays.

Social Briefs

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

It appears, when Mr. Haines, editor of the Bugle, moves into the Fisher household, he will find while serving his country gloriously in the military service, he will find the same in the home.

Baskerville-Lamborn Studios

FALL TERM
Piano - Voice - Organ - Theory
GEORGIA RICHARDSON BASKERVILLE Mrs. ABEL G. LAMBORN
LYLLA BREWER THOMPSON HELEN WAGNER NEFF
MASONIC TEMPLE
PHONE 255 Res. Phone 430

Christ Church

CRANBROOK
REV. S. MARQUIS, Rector
Sunday Service
MORNING SERVICE, SERMON 11 A. M.
Sunday School at the Same Hour
SERVICES HELD IN MEETING HOUSE
CORNER LONG HIVE AND CRANBROOK ROADS

Wright's Drapery Shoppe

217 North Woodward
Phone 1235

Wishes You a Merry Christmas

AND ANNOUNCE THEIR INTENTION TO GROW WITH BIRMINGHAM

DETROIT INSTITUTE OF MUSICAL ART

UNSURPASSED IN THE MIDDLE WEST
BIRMINGHAM STUDIO - 112 W. MAPLE - BIRMINGHAM 1140
DISTINGUISHED FACULTY - Many of National Reputation. Highest type of Musical Instruction by Professional of Amateur Courses.

DUNNING SYSTEM

IMPROVED MUSIC STUDY FOR BEGINNERS
MISS FLORA MINNICHIN

Mrs. M. D. Bentley, Piano

Harold Hungerford, Piano

Kathleen Van Hee, Piano

F. L. Whittlesey, B. M., Voice

Lawrence Le Duc, Violin

Miss Mable Royer, Ukelele, Banjo and Mandolin
Eugene Franzmann, Saxophone Clarinet
Students Registered for Day or Evening Instruction on Thursdays, 1 to 7
ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE FREE ON APPLICATION
Lawrence Le Duc, Secy.

Soft Water Shampooing

MARCELLING FINGER WAVING FACIALS MANICURING

POWDER PUFF BEAUTY SHOP

101 W. Maple

MR. ALLEN, exclusive Ladies' Hair Cutter

formerly with Richard Klein of Detroit, in attendance.