In the second half, a general shift was made. Hammel took Gail's place. Stewart took Brown's, Wygant replaced McClure, and McClure replaced Moore. Ladd shot two goals in succession; Harrison followed with another. Ladd made another basket, followed by a miss, and a goal just as the whistle blew. The score stood 18-0, in favor of the Whitesox.

Ladd was notably the best player of the game, scoring 6 goals and one on foul. Rollins scored 2 goals. Moss, Neal, and Scott had the Redsox honors.

A thing which aroused considerable comment, especially among Coach Van Winkle's part, was the whole rebuilding of the Whitesox team. The team was beaten by a 12-11 score Tuesday. In the two days intervening, they built up a remarkably strong offense, played the whole game at the Redsox' end of the court, and demonstrated wonderful teamwork.

The Coach cited this game as an example to all the teams.
