in screen beauty, appears in the title role as "Elena," the Parisian charmer, whose charms wreck the lives of all men who come under her magnetic spell.
The author has supplied Lowell Sherman and Ann Harding with two of the most attractive types of character in which he is thoroughly at home, and one that enables him to show his talents to their best advantage, while the Marie-Ange of a hearing is full of those possibilities that an actress of Miss Harding's calibre knows full well how to manipulate.

A. H. Woods spared no expense to mount and costume. The Wagon Disputed, the cast contains no less than thirty players and the interior of the Cathedral of La Harpe must have cost the expenditure of a small fortune for its construction and furnishing.
The play will be given Wednesday and Saturday for the final week.

BONSTELLE
As a title, "Pigs" is an appropriate one. The cast contains no less than thirty players and the interior of the Cathedral of La Harpe must have cost the expenditure of a small fortune for its construction and furnishing.
The play will be given Wednesday and Saturday for the final week.

GARRICK
The second last week for Lowell Sherman in his stirring war play, "The Roman Disputed," is announced at the Garrick, beginning Sunday, Jan. 2nd.
Sherman's support, Antonio Moreno and Renee Adoree, and Denison Clift, featuring popular Ann Harding and Crane Wilbur.

LAFAYETTE
Now that Christmas day is over, the fact is more firmly being accepted that Warren Hopps' presentation of John Barrymore in "Don Juan" and the uncanny, unshakable, and entirely unquestionably the sensation of the theatrical year in Detroit. Ever since Christmas night, the house has been completely sold out for every evening performance, and hundreds have been turned away.

Opinions NEVER UTTERED
Christmas does the best of an Eccentric and makes a brain with the words whose sense is profound.

ROLFE C. SPINNING: 'I at most saw Santa Claus Christmas Eve when he visited our house. I heard him on the roof and ran up to see but he had gone some day, someone is going to catch him as he is at work and he surely will be a surprised fellow.'

FRED FARRAR: 'There is something sinister about the South Sea Isles; indeed there is something sinister about the South Sea Isles. Have you ever noticed it? I suppose one really must be there to get the most that a sinister man can get and all there are books and there is ever something sinister about the books which are about the South Sea Isles.'

RUSSEL OORP: 'I have just read a good story and it was not The Eccentric either. It was a story about three Blind Mice and how they ran. It was a sad little story and I am sorry I read it because it made me feel sad that day Christmas and any way that day was a sad day.'

ALFRED LABELLE: 'All I have to say is I am sorry I do not have a chance to wish you a Merry Christmas before now. I can only say that I am sorry I do not have a chance to wish you a Merry Christmas before now. I can only say that I am sorry I do not have a chance to wish you a Merry Christmas before now.'

QUARTON LAKE SKATING
SKATING for Birmingham and Floomfield Township residents and their friends will be allowed on Quarton Lake until further notice, but at your own risk.

And subject to the following: Don't use south end of lake near spillway and dam, it is dangerous. No fires will be allowed. Don't use lake during warm periods when ice is thawing. Don't park cars on Lake Park Drive or Oak Street or Quarton Lake Park at lake. Keep off shores of lake where there are trees or shrubbery or any improvements of property. All rough skaters will be disbanded indefinitely—give the small children a chance.

We ask that all skaters co-operate with us, particularly covering the matter of property damage, in order that we will not have to close the lake to skating.

Very truly yours,
