DANCE RECITAL TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

Miss Smith's Class In Beautiful Program At Village Theater.

Jules Breton's "Song of the Lark" and Hans Makart's "The Dream After the Ball" will be posed by pupils of Miss Evelyn Livingston Smith in one of the most effective numbers of her dance recital tonight at the Village Players' Theater. Miss Lisbeth Sloman will impersonate the girl in the first picture and the Camilla Hubel, Kathleen Sloman, and Genevieve Gay will be in the second.

This is one of seven elaborate numbers listed on the program, the remaining six are "A Gypsy Camp," "Hunt Suite," "Lady of the Snow," "A Bit of Jazz," "In the Artists' Garden," and "A Woodland Fantasy."

Miss Camilla Hubel will be the featured dancer of the evening, but she will be assisted by several Birmingham girls, among whom are Hester Resnik, Ruth Reiter, Lisbeth Sloman, Ruth Porritt, Eleanor Wasey, Yvonne Gay, Jessie Lamb, Kathleen Sloman, and Genevieve Gay. Miss Bernice Drahner will act as pianist.

NEW COOK BOOK IS COMPLETED

The Birmingham Cook Book, published by Division three of the First Presbyterian Church Society, is being sold today by members of the division. This book contains considerably more than 1,000 recipes for everything from the first to the last part of the meal.

The women of the society have worked long and hard on the book, which was printed and put together at The Birmingham Eccentric office.

CHRISTMAS COOKIES

Not only the fruit cake and plum pudding must be made for the Christmas vacation but the cookie jar must be filled. Here is the recipe for cinnamon stars: Five egg whites, one pound granulated sugar (two cups), one pound shelled almonds (one cup ground), two teaspoons ground cinnamon. Beat egg whites until very stiff, add sugar slowly and cinnamon. Lightly mix in the ground almonds (not blanched) and set away in a cool place overnight. Next day sprinkle about one-quarter cup flour over your pastry board and roll out the dough to one quarter-inch thickness, or thinner if you like crisp cookies. Cut out with star cooky cutter, place on oiled baking sheet and bake for twenty or twenty-five minutes in a moderate oven. They may be left plain or frosted with a mixture of confectioner's sugar and

MRS. VLIET TALKS TO CIVIC LEAGUE

Paper On Recall Election Read To Members By Mrs. Vliet.

Mrs. Clarence Vliet, of Brown street, gave an informal talk on the recent meeting of the Detroit Federation of Women's clubs at the meeting of the Civic League Tuesday afternoon at the Community House.

Mrs. Vliet attended the Federation meeting, which was held last week as delegate from the Women's Literary Society.

The paper on the recall, prepared and read by Mrs. C. A. Bowlus, of Bates street, for the meeting preceding this one, was re-read, at this meeting.

In accordance with their general practice, the Civic League will have no meeting during the holidays, the next meeting date being Jan. 11.

BUSINESS GIRLS TO HAVE PARTY

Miss Alta Symons is chairman of the committee which will have charge of the bridge party to be given by the Business Girls' club tomorrow at 8:30 p. m. at the Community House. She will be assisted by Mrs. Carlotta Coates and Miss Eloise Carnahan.

There will be prizes and a lunch will be served. The proceeds of the party will go for Christmas charity work.

Books As Presents Is Meeting Subject

Books as Christmas presents for children will be the topic of the next meeting of the Hill Parent-Teachers' association Tuesday afternoon at the school.

Miss Blanche Kerns, librarian of the Baldwin library, will tell about new books for children, and the books that have proved most appealing to children in her library experience. Teachers will also suggest the books that they have found popular among children.

Mrs. Arthur Neff, of Watkins avenue, will sing a group of Christmas carols.

Mrs. Lawrence Hulbert, of Brown street, is chairman of the program committee for this meeting. Refreshments will be served.

ADAMS P.-T. A. GROUP ARRANGE FOR CAROLS

A special program of Christmas carols is being arranged for the next meeting of the Adams School Parent-Teachers' association, Tuesday, Dec. 21, at 8 p. m.

The program will be under the direction of Miss Mae Brumstead, teacher of Music in the primary grades in Birmingham.

Scores In Play

MARION TRUMBULL

Miss Trumbull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Trumbull, of Ridgedale avenue, played the role of Lois Ingals, in the Theta Alpha Phi production of "The Goose Hangs High," at Michigan State College. Miss Trumbull is a graduate of Baldwin High School, class of 1924.

TEACHING METHODS ARE EXPLAINED

Freedom In School Room Aim Of New Teacher, Speaker Tells Mothers.

"The old spirit of formality in the school room is rapidly being replaced by a sense of freedom which allows the children a chance for self expression," said Miss Edith Adams at the combined meeting of the Barnum School Parent-Teachers' association and the elementary course of the American Association of University Women last Thursday at the Barnum School.

Miss Adams, who was secured for the meeting through Clarence Vliet, superintendent of schools, is director of the Woodruff Kindergarten and an instructor in the State Normal College at Ypsilanti.

"Not so many years ago, Miss Adams remarked, "the best teacher was the one who managed to make her students absorb the largest number of facts, in the manner of a sponge absorbing water. Today the good teacher is the one who brings out the individuality in her students.

"She is a guide. She suggests lines for the children to work along. In our kindergarten, we allow the children to do as they like as long as they don't interfere with their schoolmates nor jeopardize their general welfare. Self-control and social habits are what we try to teach them, and I feel that we are successful. Just a few soft chords of the piano will bring them to attention no matter what they are doing."

Tea was served following Miss Adams' talk. Mrs. Charles Hart and Mrs. G. W. Stallings, both of Daines street, presided at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Toothacker, of Merrill street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred, to Raymond Morrow, of Detroit. The wedding will take place during the Christmas holidays.

VILLAGE PLAYERS IN TWO REHEARSALS

Goodman and Hecht Writers Whose Products Are To Be Presented

Ten persons will take part in the two plays to be given as the next offering of the Village Players at their new playhouse, Friday evening, Dec. 17.

The first of these plays, "The Hero of Santa Maria", by Kenneth Sawyer Goodman and Ben Hecht, is an out-and-out farce, which a number of elderly persons are concerned.

J. Fred Woodruff is cast as Nate and Fred D. Farmer as Toadey in this number. The remainder of the cast presents George P. Raynale as Marty, Hendrick Brusse as Mr. Willinson, Loren Stauch, as Mr. Foss, Walter T. Elliot as Squire Hines, and Mrs. Carl Binkie as Elmira.

Mrs. Harrison J. Stringham, of Oakland avenue, is coaching the play.

The cast for the second play, "The Beau of Bath," by Constance Mackay, contains only three names, Mrs. Raymond W. Reilly, Ernest W. Chapin, and Rolfe C. Spinning. This is a costume play, and is being coached by Miss Betty Penny.

EARLY PLANS MADE FOR DE MOLAY DANCE

Third Annual Christmas Party Will Be Held At New Village Playhouse.

A Detroit orchestra has already been negaged for the third annual DeMolay Ball, to be held between Christmas and New Year's at the Village Players Theater. The exact date has not been decided upon, but it will be either Dec. 28 or 29.

This ball is one of the biggest affairs of the year, and is looked forward to by the younger set for weeks before hand. It will be informal this year, and the attendance will be limited to 65 couples.

The various committees in charge of the dance will be announced within the week, as will the names of the patrons and patronesses.

Legion Auxiliary Elects Officers

Mrs. Harold Corson, of west Maple avenue, was elected president of the American Legion Auxiliary No. 14 at the regular meeting Tuesday evening at the Community House.

The other officers elected were Mrs. George Johnson, vice president; Mrs. Joseph MacGregor, secretary; and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, treasurer. Mrs. Emerson C. Brown, Mrs. Leon Mix and Mrs. Harry Mudge compose the executive committee.

Twenty-five dollars are being sent to the American Legion Billet at Otter Lake as a Christmas present to the children of the veterans at the home, and $10 are being sent to the legion hospital at Battle Creek.

The talk by Miss Ethel Stitt, of Detroit, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, which was scheduled for Tuesday evening, Dec. 7, has been postponed until Wednesday night, Dec. 15. Miss Ann Cross, of the Billet, will also be present Wednesday night, when the annual Christmas party of the legion and the Auxiliary will be held at the Community House. All members of the Legion and the auxiliary are urged to be present.

BAPTIST LADIES TO MEET TODAY

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the First Baptist Church was to be held today at the church. Luncheon was to be served, and the afternoon spent in dressing dolls for Christmas mission work.

About 25 dolls were to be dressed, to be distributed to the different Baptist children's homes in the vicinity.

MISS ALICE STANLEY WEDS IN CALIFORNIA

Word has been received in Birmingham of the marriage in Pasadena, Calif., of Miss Alice Stanley to Wesley Keaugh on Nov. 19. Miss Stanley is the sister of Lloyd A. Stanley of Madison avenue and was his guest here last year for a considerable time. The couple intends to make Pasadena their residence.

All-American Candidate Won In Love as Well as Football

Charley Rogers, University of Pennsylvania grid captain who has just wound up his collegiate career and stands as an All-American backfield candidate, was as successful in love as in football. For during the closing weeks of his athletic career it leaked out that the grid star had been wed for four months to Helen Morton, sports writer on a Philadelphia newspaper. They met at the Cornell-Pennsylvania game in 1925, which Penn won.

Social Briefs

The Ladies' Church Society of the First Presbyterian Church will meet Wednesday at 3 p. m. in the church parlors.

The regular meeting of the deacons and trustees of the First Baptist Church was held Tuesday evening at the church.

Mrs. Clarence E. Botsford, of Bloomfield Village, was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon Friday. Covers were laid for 15 guests.

Mrs. David Roy, of Brown street, is in Harper Hospital, Detroit, under the care of Dr. Clark Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Olsen, of Willetts street, were hosts last week-end to Mr. Olsen's mother, Mrs. Hans Olsen, and his brother, Fred Olsen, and his mother's daughter, Miss Rosamund Olsen, all of Greenville. They were extensively entertained by their many friends and relatives in Birmingham while they were here.

Miss Minnie Bell, a sister of Mrs. William G. Olsen, of Willetts street, is reported considerably improved from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, of Merrill street, left Monday for Santa Barbara, Calif., where they will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. W. Nelson Whittemore and their family.

Miss Emma Snobble, of Detroit, was a week-end guest of Mrs. Cora Robinson at her home on Ferndale avenue.

Mrs. Harry J. Conning, of Ravine road, is entertaining her Detroit bridge club at luncheon and bridge today. There are two tables.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Vhay, of the Hills, have with them for a few weeks their grandchildren, Delphine and Peter Duckett, the children of the W. Ward Ducketts.

Mrs. Max Stringer entertained four tables of bridge yesterday afternoon at her home on Dorchester road.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Huston, of Pierce street, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Richard Alan, Nov. 27.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Pyle were hosts Saturday evening at a dinner and hard time party at their home on Euclid avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Halgren, of Lakeview avenue, are spending this week in New York City.

Mrs. R. F. Hoffman returned Tuesday to her home in Lafayette, Ind., after spending two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. George Linton, at her home on Lone Pine road. Before she left, Mrs. Hoffman visited the exhibition of French art at the Detroit Art Museum.

52 Issues of The Eccentric $1.50

Fire hose and police clubs will be laid to rest temporarily tonight while one-half of the Birmingham Fire department and one-half of the Police department will prepare, and the other half of both departments will eat the annual rabbit dinner at the K. of P. Hall.

The departments hold their annual hunt Monday and Tuesday, dividing themselves into two parties. One party held its hunt Monday, going to Gladwin for the event; the other did its hunting in Oakland County, just north of Pontiac, Tuesday.

Prophets it would seem, are not the only persons not appreciated in their own county. Rabbits are in the same fix. The Tuesday group, in spite of the weather, brought in 25 rabbits, to the unlucky 13 of those who hunted Monday.

And for their bad luck Monday, that group must pay by cooking and serving dinner to the Tuesday hunters and their wives and families as well as to their own wives and families. They will also wash the dishes.

The cooks and dishwashers include officers Bill Green, Ed Myers, and Julius Steinhurst, Sergeant Clark Green; Fireman are: Bill Thornton, Gordon Griffith, Dinny Groves, Earl Gaskell, Bob Pepperall and Charley Jones.

These gentlemen, clad in the aprons and caps of official chefs will serve Chief Jim Anderson, Dave Anderson, Lester Purdy, Hans Olson, Chief Bill Olsen, George Townsend, Dick Lawler, Harry Johnson, Harry Starr, George Jones, Dinty Moore, Frank Olsen, Merritt Schlanck, Herb Moore, Henry Stohl, Bryan McClellan, George Scott, Leon Miller and their families, and as their own families with rabbit and chicken (the chicken, be it said, are not products of the hunt).

When the losers were asked if they could account for having incurred the penalty, Sergeant Green offered an explanation. "I was too busy to go with my crowd," he bowed with a blush.

J-Hop Decorations Will Be Midieval

ANN ARBOR—The decorative theme of the J-hop to be held here Feb. 11 by the junior class of the University of Michigan will be taken from medieval times "When knights and their ladies fair made merry in the castle halls of old," it was announced here yesterday by the committee in charge. The design termed "Medieval Royal," submitted by the Detroit Arts & Crafts Studio, was selected from a total of 25 entered.

Long, richly-colored drapes will hang from the ceilings of the combined Waterman and Barbour Gymnasiums, transforming them into castle halls of medieval times. Pillars supported by figures in armour will be placed about the sides. Shields emblazoned with the letters of the Greek organizations occupying them will be hung above the booths of the various fraternities at the hop. Other booths will have similar shields with other designs. Hidden lights will play on the hanging drapes to enrich their color and cast reflection on the throng of dancers.
