

The Other Chap Says Something

LEGISLATING AGAINST CIGARETS. Anti-cigarette legislation will be asked at the coming session of the state legislature. Many well-intentioned and honest folk will get back of this proposal.

There is too much prohibitory legislation on our statute books at present. There is little need for more. The law enforcing arms of the government find that it is next to impossible to enforce the liquor law.

TY COBB RETIRES. So far as the spectator was concerned Ty Cobb was probably the greatest ball player that ever lived.

tastic, impossible twist was an easy possibility, and we sat there like children, eagerly waiting for the wonder man to perform his miracle. Also, under the swift de-cisiveness that marked his coups there was an infectious, diabolical humor.

GOT HIM AT LAST. After several years of unsuccessful effort to get a local hardware merchant to advertise, the publisher of a Kansas weekly newspaper recently was surprised to receive an order for a full page from the former non-advertiser.
