

'Harmonic Expression' Called Misunderstood By Most People

The phrase "harmonic expression" is one that you read and don't bother to look up in the dictionary, because, you tell your conscience, "I'll bet Mrs. Smith doesn't know what it means either. So what's the difference. It sounds pretty complicated, and wouldn't do me any good anyway. Some of which is true and some of which is not true. Verily, Mrs. Smith is probably as little informed on subject as you are, but not so verily would it do you no good. Harmonic expression, according to Miss Nettie Bauer, who teaches

Aristocrat of the Boulevard

—every inch a Custom Car!

THE President is a Big Six Custom Sedan of outstanding distinction, created by Studebaker to reflect the dignity and leadership of aristocratic American executives.

Aristocrat of the boulevard, it combines the vogue of the smartest foreign creations with the alert performance of American traffic-ways demand.

Outside, a low-swing steel body in the gleaming loveliness of duotone lacquer. Inside, the unobtrusive richness of Butler silvered fittings, Chase mohair or broadcloth upholstery, silken curtains, broadlace trim, upholstered footrest, silk tasseled cords, vanity case, smoking set, rear corner lights and an automatic iridescent dome light.

From the silvered figure of Atalanta above its radiator—symbol of the silent, inexhaustible power of the Big Six L-head motor—to the graceful curves of its rear bumper, The President is a masterpiece of custom luxury and custom distinction that only Studebaker One-Plant facilities make possible at this price.
