TOWNSHIP CLERK.

"KOSHER KITTY KELLY" AT THE GARRICK NEXT WEEK

According to advance reports, anyone who has seen "Kosher Kitty Kelly" should not have to be coaxed to see her musical twin sister, "Kosher Kitty Kelly," for if you laughed at "Kosher Kitty Kelly," you'll find yourself humming "Kitty's" catchy melodies of Leon De Costa's "Melting Pot" of the East Side of New York set to music, in three acts and six scenes, which opens at the Garrick Theatre, Sunday night, Feb. 28th, with the entire New York cast and production, for an engagement of one week with the usual matinee. The engagement will be the first outside of New York where it had a highly successful run of over eight months.

The great success of "Kosher Kitty Kelly" is due to the fact that the author, Leon De Costa, has handled this delicate subject so as to avoid all religious differences. The singing and dancing numbers are said to be exceptionally bright and catchy.

Among the song hits were the following: "I Want to Dance With You," "Dancing Toss 'Til Cuddles Up to You," "Where Can We Be in the swinging waltz number," "What's the Story for You," "Kosher Kitty Kelly," sung by Miss Nell Roy, who was last seen here in "Sally, Irene and Mary."

Other names of prominence in the cast are: Sam Critcherson, Robert Leonard, Jennie Moskowitz, Dorothy Walker, Beatrice Allen, Earl May, Marvin Creek, and Charles Harris.

AT THE BALDWIN THEATRE, ROYAL OAK, FOR NEXT WEEK

Baldwin Theatre, Royal Oak popular amusement center, presents some fine bills for the next week. Starting Sunday, Feb. 28th and for one day only Percy Marmont and Noah Berry in "Jim, Jim, Jim," a Fleming production, a great sea thriller, with beautiful islands in the south seas.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 1-3, "Exchange of Wives," Hamilton's stage success, with Eleanor Boardman, Lew Cody and Renee Adore. One of the most entertaining domestic comedies of the screen.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 4-6, "Lois Wilson and Thos. Meighan in 'Irish Luck'." Meighan's big scene with Douglas, the villain and his band of conspirators occur in picturesque Queen Victoria, once the summer home of Queen Victoria. Still another scene shows five all star acts of vaudeville will be included with each performance.

Pathe News and Theatre Orchestra completing the program for the coming week. Now playing, Richard Dix in "Womanhandled," a Paramount picture.

"THE SONG AND DANCE MAN" AT BONSTELLE PLAYHOUSE

George M. Cohan knows the stage having been "born in the deep purple" as it were in the relation that this phrase might bear thereto. There have been many controversies over this "Song and Dance Man," which first saw the light of day in Detroit with Lynn Overman playing the title role, which was later assumed by Mr. Cohan, himself, in which he won further success as an actor. Many have claimed that "The Song and Dance Man" is a page from life, the inner thoughts of one of America's most popular actors and at the same time most successful producers and authors. The decision has never been handed down by the higher courts, but it has been decided by Miss Bonstelle to offer this most unusual play as the next bid in the Playhouse next Monday, March 1st.

"The Song and Dance Man" might be the inner thoughts of George M. Cohan, himself, in which he won further success as an actor and song and dance man, then as author and finally as producer and author. Again it might not, but it does reflect humanity and thought, it provides a thrill and natural comedy, characters that are human and is not without a poignant touch of tragedy. It is a play that defies comparison, yet the entertainment of rare qualities and should give the Bonstelle Company further opportunity to demonstrate its versatility, particularly Donald Cameron, who will have the role of "The Song and Dance Man," a handsome, cheery "Hooper" but the stage was in the blood. That he had a chance for success in business—did he stick?

B. F. KEITH'S OFFERING AT TEMPLE THEATRE, DETROIT

Charles Withers in "Withers O'ry," the old style variety entertainer of thirty years ago, beats the bill at B. F. Keith's Temple Theatre starting Sunday afternoon, Feb. 28. Mr. Withers is a character comedian popular both here and in England. He has made the country opera house manager famous on both sides of the Atlantic. He has a large company supporting him in his comedy classic which is one of the season's big laugh hits. Others billed, Sylvia Clark, vaudeville's little bumble in skit called "Kaverting Unk," Thomas F. Swift and Company bring "The Gob," a funny sketch by Paul Gerard Smith, Artie Miller and Sam Williams in a routine of comedy and song called "The Teacher and Pup," "Hooper" and Verdi, a talented pair of young musicians in "Springing Comedy," Frank Richardson, the joy boy of song; the "Battered" a trio of steppeers known as Philadelphia's own dance stars; Keff-La Tell Company with a variety of skits; America's premier variety artists and the usual screen program.

MARY PICKFORD FILM TO BE SCREENED HERE ON MARCH 8

On March 8 the Order of Eastern Star will present in the Baldwin auditorium the movie, "Rosita," a Spanish romance starring Mary Pickford. The new Pickford picture is said to be the most pretentious of her career. The story deals with the adventures of a little street singer who thrusts upon her the love of a king. Miss Pickford is seen in a very emotional role and rises to greater dramatic heights in this vehicle than in anything she has ever before attempted. Those who view "Rosita" will see a new Mary Pickford.
