200 Guests Enjoyed Party Given By Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Stauch Saturday

One of the largest and most attractive parties of the season was given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Loren G. Stauch of Redwood avenue when they entertained over 200 of their friends at a buffet supper and dance at the Oakland Hills Country Club. The lounge room was closed for dancing was very festive with its decorations. At one end of the long room on a table beside an open fire was a small Christmas tree. At the other end was the orchestra. The dining room, opening into its large hall, had a large Christmas tree at its farther end. Tables for six, eight, and ten, were ranged along two sides of the room with an open space in the center. Tall red candles lit up the tables and colored hats topped the heads for favors combined to make a very colorful scene. A lighted wreath hung over each fireplace and under the red, green and cream colored candles lights were suspended small wreaths. A professional entertainer aroused the guests by his singing and dancing and many of the guests were entertained by paper baskets and noise makers.

Most of the guests were from Birmingham and included: Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Combes, Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Stralinger, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Good, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace J. Frost, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Packard, Mr. and Mrs. Max S. Glover, Dr. and Mrs. W. Newton, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. At high noon Tuesday, December 22, the wedding of Miss Irene Barbour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Teft Barbour, to James Eugene Duffy, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Eugene Duffy, of Bay City, was solemnized at St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit. Bishop Herman Page, assisted by Reverend Alan McKelvey, performed the marriage ceremony. A hedge of white roses formed an aisle through the chapel to the altar, which was lighted by tall candelabra and decorated with steevia and narcissus.

Mrs. Riley Miles Gilbert, of New York, attended Miss Barbour as matron of honor. Miss Ella Barbour, daughter of the bride, and Miss Gertrude Jewett as bridesmaids. Mr. Duffy was assisted by R. Gary Greer of Bay City, as best man, Charles E. Sheares, Donald McCabe, Thomas F. Marston and George Wheatley, of Cincinnati. Mr. William T. Barbour, Jr., of Detroit, served as usher.

Miss Barbour wore her mother's wedding dress of ivory moire, remodeled slightly; the bodice was straight with long sleeves and the skirt full and long but opening in front to show and exquisite petticoat of carriage-cross lace. Her plain tulle veil was fastened at each side with orange tulle, and Mrs. C. H. Ranney, of there with the same blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Barbour were dressed alike in frocks of orchid georgette over blue, which were cut low over the shoulders to show pink slips which in front were adorned with tiny French flowers. They wore blue satin slippers and stockings, and blue velvet hats trimmed with silver ribbon, which hung down the back and ended in French flowers, the small blue velvet muffs had shawers of the same ribbons and flowers.

The bridesmaids' dresses were the same except that they were blue over orchid and their slippers, stockings, hats and muffs were orchid. Mrs. Barbour wore fuschia garter, her fuschia velvet hat was trimmed with ostrich feathers and she carried lilies of the valley and gardenias. The groom's mother, Mrs. Duffy, wore a black and white dress trimmed in gold, a black hat, and carried yellow roses. After the ceremony a large reception was given at the home of Mrs. George Jefferson. The bride and groom will live in Detroit, where the groom is a student.

Among the Birmingham and Hillsdale people at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw and Misses Elizabeth and Mary Adelle Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. George Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wallace, Mrs. Frank Klingsmeyer and Miss Mary Talliferro. Sporting enthusiasts at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club are taking advantage of this ideal hunting weather. The first morning of the party started forth including Mr. and Mrs. George Hendrie, E. S. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hammond, Victor Edward, and George Hammond, C. C. Cunningham, and son, Charles E. Cunningham, and son, C. M. Higgins, Joseph Braun, Francis Palms, Jr., and Mrs. E.
