Local Banker Declares Birmingham Is Detroit Ideal "Suburb Home-Land"

NEEDS BOOSTING BY ALL Good Schools and Recreational Advantages Are Sure For New Residents

"None of us can fully appreciate that Greater Woodward Avenue, the first superhighway and the suburb in the Detroit area that will do for Birmingham what the State Savings Bank, yesterday."

"We have here one of the best school systems in the entire state of Michigan," continued Mr. Cobb.

"The various golf and country clubs offer unexcelled recreational advantages while the picturesque country side never leaves us."

"A Residential Territory" The fact is of particular importance that the Birmingham area is becoming more and more attractive to residential territory.

"Every resident of Birmingham is familiar with these advantages, but it is not enough, he will serve his own best interests and that of the community if he will tell his family friends about it."

"Commercial activity will be more revived. Professional men will enjoy greater patronage; merchants more customers. More money will be made and more money spent in Birmingham. Real Estate will greatly increase in value. This means that property owned here will be worth a great deal more money. Naturally we will all be more prosperous."

"So it's up to everyone to talk Birmingham. This policy will bring lasting benefits to every resident of the City. W. Cobb concluded."
